William is for Peace.

BERLIN, June 21.—The Post declares there is no foundation for the idea that a change will be made in the Germany policy averse to Russia. French fears, it says, are also baseless, the moon being more likely to visit the earth than the German emperor to dream of attacking France only to earn laurels. Germany wishes nothing from France but to be let alone. As soon as the French see this, conditions will exist for perpetual peace and friendship. At the same time, the paper says, the tone of the emperor's proclamation may well serve to remind elements unfriendly to Germany in the east or west, in a manner perhaps not agreeable to them, of the Hohenzollern way of waging war, and make clear to them that an unjust attack upon Germany will meet with the French attack of 1870. The emperor will wield his sword like his glorious ancestors, but only in defense of the Fatherland against unjust attacks.

The Knights of Pythias.

CINCINNATI, June 21.—The Supreme Lodge of the Knights of Pythias adopted the report of the committee on endowment rank, authorized the board of control of that department to levy assessments, in addition to one per month as heretofore when necessary. The lodge adopted a resolution declaring explicitly that no authority had ever been granted for the creation of a lodge of colored knights, and that no colored man can lawfully be admitted to any lodge.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Indiana: cooler and local rains, followed by fair weather.

Base Ball.

The following is the result of yesterday afternoon's games:

ALL TALK!

Hawley, Gresham and Harrison Announced to the Convention and the Good Work Goes Nobly On.

The Republican Platform in Full—Exciting Scenes and Incidents.

CONVENTION HALL, CHICAGO, June 21.—The convention faces another day's hot work with the glimmer of a ballot at the end of it.

It appears that the probable program for the day is to get through with the platform at the session now about to open, have the nominating speeches disposed of this afternoon or this evening and then proceed to show hands on one ballot and adjourn until to-morrow.

The hope of the Sherman men that Mayor Fitler will not be presented appears to be realized.

Chairman Estee has arrived and the delegates come in rapidly. The chairman rapped sharply with his gavel at five minutes past 10 o'clock, asked the delegates to take their seats and called the convention to order.

The invocation was delivered by Rev. Thomas E. Green, of Chicago. Under the direction of the chairman, the secretary called the roll of states for members.

Mr. McKinley, of Ohio, chairman of the resolutions committee, who had just entered the hall, was recognized by the chair, and arose to make the report of the committee. The convention, recognizing him as one of the dark horses in the presidential race and a popular one also, cheered lustily and when McKinley advanced to the platform to read his report, the applause was redoubled and became almost an ovation.

In a clear, distinct voice Mr. McKinley read the committee report as follows:

The Platform.

The republicans of the United States assembled by their delegates in national convention, pause on the threshold of their proceedings to honor the memory of their first great leader, immortal champion of liberty and the rights of the people—Abraham Lincoln, and to cover also with wreaths of imperishable remembrance and gratitude the heroic names of our later leaders, who have more recently been called away from our councils—Grant, Garfield, Arthur, Logan and Conkling. May their memories be faithfully cherished.

We also recall with our greetings and with prayer for his recovery the name of one of our living heroes, whose memory will be treasured in the history, both of republicans and of the republic, the name of that noble soldier and favorite child of victory—Phillip H. Sheridan.

In the spirit of those great leaders, in our own devotion to human liberty and with that hostility to all forms of despotism and oppression, which is the fundamental ideal of the republican party, we send fraternal congratulations to our fellow-Americans of Brazil upon their great act of emancipation which completed the abolition of slavery throughout two American continents.

We earnestly hope we may soon congratulate our fellow citizens of Irish birth upon the peaceful recovery of home rule for Ireland.

We affirm our unswerving devotion to the national constitution and to the indissolved union of the states, to the autonomy reserved to the states under the constitution, to personal rights and liberties of the citizens in all states and territories in the union and especially to the supreme and sovereign right of every lawful citizen, rich or poor, native or foreign born, white or black, to cast one free ballot in public elections and to have that ballot duly counted.

We hold the free and honest popular ballot and the just and equal representation of all the people to be the foundation of our republican government and demand effective legislation to secure the integrity and purity of elections which are the foundations of all public authority.

We charge that the present administration and democratic majority in congress owe their existence to suppression of the ballot by a criminal nullification of the constitution and laws of the United States.

We are uncompromisingly in favor of the American system of protection; we protest against its destruction, as proposed by the president and his party. They serve the interests of Europe. We will support the interests of America. We accept the issue and confidently appeal to the people for their judgment.

The protective system must be maintained. Its abandonment has always been followed by general disaster to all interests except those of the usurer and sheriff. We denounce the Mills bill as destructive to the general business, labor and farming interests of the country and heartily indorse the consistent and patriotic action of the republican representatives in congress in opposing its passage.

We condemn the proposition of the democratic party to place wool on the free list and we insist that the duties thereon shall be adjusted and maintained so as to furnish full and adequate protection to that industry.

The republican party would effect all the needed reduction of the national revenue by repealing the taxes upon tobacco which are an annoyance and burden to agriculture and the tax upon spirits, used in the arts and for mechanical purposes, and by such revision of the tariff laws as will tend to check the imports of such articles as are produced by our people, the production of which gives employment to our labor and releases from import duties those articles of foreign production (except luxuries), the like of which cannot be produced at home. If there shall still remain a larger revenue than is required for the wants of the government, we favor the entire repeal of internal taxes rather than the surrender of any part of our protective system at the joint behest of the whisky ring and the agents of foreign manufacturers.

We declare our hostility to the introduction into this country of foreign contract labor and of Chinese labor alien to our civilization and our constitution, and we demand a rigid enforcement of the existing laws against it, and favor such immediate legislation as will exclude such labor from our shores.

We declare our opposition to all combinations of capital, organized in trusts or otherwise, to control arbitrarily the condition of trade among our citizens, and we recommend to congress and the state legislatures, in their respective jurisdictions, such legislation as will prevent the execution of all schemes to oppress the people by undue charges on their supplies, or by unjust rates for the transportation of their products to the market.

We approve the legislation by congress to prevent alike unjust burdens and unfair discriminations between the states.

We reaffirm the policy of appropriating the public lands of the United States to be homesteads for American citizens and settlers, not aliens, which the republican party established in 1862, against the persistent opposition of the democrats in congress, and which has brought our great western domain into such magnificent development.

The restoration of unearned railroad land grants to the public domain for the use of actual settlers, which was begun under the administration of President Arthur, should be continued.

We deny that the democratic party has every restored one acre to the people, but declare that by the joint action of republicans and democrats, about fifty million of acres of unearned lands, originally granted for the construction of railroads, has been restored to the public domain, in pursuance of the conditions inserted by the republican party in the original grants.

We charge the democratic administration with failure to execute the laws securing to settlers the title to their homesteads, and with using the appropriations made for that purpose to harass innocent settlers with spies and prosecutions under false pretense of exposing frauds and vindicating the law.

The government, by congress of the territories, is based upon necessity only to the end that they may become states in the union. Therefore, whenever the conditions of population, material, resources, public intelligence and morality are such as to insure a stable local government therein, the people of such territories should be permitted, as a right inherent in them, to form for themselves constitutions and state governments and be admitted into the union. Pending the preparation for statehood all officers thereof should be selected from bona fide residents and citizens of the territory wherein they are to serve.

[Here follows the demand for the admission of South Dakota, and for the passage of bills to enable the people of Washington, North Dakota and Montana territories to form constitutions and to establish state governments, and pledging the party to do all in its power to facilitate the admission of the territories of New Mexico, Wyoming, Idaho and Arizona to the enjoyment of self government as states, such of them as are now qualified, as soon as possible, and the others as soon as they may become so.]

The political power of the Mormon church in the territories, as exercised in the past, is a menace of free institutions, too dangerous longer to be suffered. Therefore, we pledge the republican party to appropriate legislation asserting the sovereignty of the nation in all the territories where the same is questioned, and in furtherance of that end, to place upon the statute books legislation stringent enough to divorce the political from the ecclesiastical power and thus stamp out the attendant wickedness of polygamy.

The republican party is in favor of the use of both gold and silver as money and condemn the policy of the democratic administration in its efforts to demonetize silver.

We demand the reduction of letter postage to one cent per ounce.

In republics like ours, where the citizen is the sovereign and official servant, where no power is exercised except by the will of the people, it is important that the sovereign—the people—should possess intelligence. The free school is the promoter of that intelligence, which is to preserve us as a free nation, therefore the state or nation, or both combined, should support free institutions of learning sufficient to afford every child, growing up in the land, an opportunity for a good common school education.

We earnestly recommend that prompt action be taken by congress in the enactment of such legislation as will best secure rehabitation of our American merchant marine, and we protest against the passage by congress of the free ship bill as calculated to work injustice to labor, by lessening the wages of those engaged in preparing materials, as well as of those directly employed in our ship yards.

We demand appropriation for the early rebuilding of the navy construction, coast fortifications and modern ordinance and other approved modern means of defense for the protection of our defenseless harbors and cities, for the payment of just pensions to soldiers, for necessary works of national importance in the improvement of harbors and channels of the internal coast, wise and foreign commerce for the encouragement of the shipping interests of the Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific states, as well as for the payment on the maturing public debt. This policy will give employment to our laborers, activity to our industries, increase the security of our country, promote trade, open new and direct markets for our produce, and cheapen the cost of transportation. We affirm this to be far better for the country than the democratic policy of loaning government bonds without interest to "pet banks."

The conduct of foreign affairs by the present administration has been distinguished by its inefficiency and its cowardice. Having withdrawn from the senate all pending treaties effected by the republican administration for the removal of foreign burdens and the restrictions upon our commerce and for its extention into better markets, it has neither effected nor proposed any others in their stead Professing adherence to the Monroe doctrine, it has seen, with idle complacency, the extension of foreign influence in Central America and foreign trade everywhere among our neighbors. It has refused to charter, sanction or encourage any American organization for the constructing of the Nicaragua canal, a work of vital importance to the maintenance of the Monroe doctrine of our national influence in Central and South America and necessary for the development of trade with our Pacific territory, with South America and with the islands and further coasts of the Pacific Ocean.

We arraign the present democratic administration for its weak and unpatriotic treatment of the fisheries question and its pusilanimous surrender of the essential privileges to which our fishing vessels are entitled to in Canadian ports under the treaty of 1818, the reciprocal marine legislation of 1830 and the comity of nations, and which Canadian fishing vessels receive in the ports of the United States.

We condemn the policy of the present administration and democratic majority in congress towards our fisheries as unfriendly and conspicuously unpatriotic and as tending to destroy valuable national industries and indispensible resources of defense against the foreign enemy.

The name of American applies alike to all citizens of the republic and imposes also upon all alike the same obligation of obedience to the laws. At the same time that citizenship is and must be a panoply and safeguard of him who wears it and protect him, whether high or low, rich or poor, in all his civil rights. It should and must afford him protection at home and follow and protect him abroad in whatever land he may be on a lawful errand.

The men who abandoned the republican party in 1884 and continue to adhere to the democratic party have deserted not only the cause of honest government, of sound finance, of freedom and purity of ballot, but especially have deserted the cause of reform in civil service. We will not fail to keep our pledges because they broke theirs, or because their candidate has broken his. We therefore repeat our declaration of 1884 to wit: "The reform of the civil service so auspiciously begun under the republican administration, should be completed by a further extension of the reform system already established by the law to all grades of service to which it is applicable. The spirit and purpose of reform should be observed in all executive appointments, and all laws at variance with the object of existing reform legislation should be repealed to the end that the dangers to free institutions, which lurk in the power of official patronage, may be wisely and effectively avoided."

The gratitude of the nation to the defenders of the union can not be measured by the laws. The legislation of congress should conform to the pledges made by the loyal people and be so enlarged and extended as to provide against the possibility that any man who honorably wore the federal uniform had to become an inmate of the alms house or dependent upon private charity. In the presence of an overflowing treasury, it would be a public scandal to do less for those whose valorous service preserved the government. We denounce the hostile spirit shown by President Cleveland in his numerous vetoes of measures for pension relief and the action of the democratic house of representatives in refusing even the consideration of the general pension legislation.

In support of the principles herewith enunciated we invite the co-oporation of the patriotic men of all parties and especially all working men whose prosperity is seriously threatened by the free trade policy of the present administration.

As Mr. McKinley mentioned the names of the dead leaders of the republican party, cheer after cheer ascended, and his illusion to the living hero, Phillip Sheridan, was received with loud applause. But these bursts of enthusiasm were as nothing to the storm of applause and cheers which broke out when Mr. McKinley enunciated the principle of the republican party in regard to protection. Every member of the convention rose to his feet and many spectators followed their example. Fans were waved, handkerchiefs were fluttered, cries were given and shouts of approval found noisy vent. For fully a minute Mr. McKinley was unable to continue on account of the demonstration, which broke out afresh when the denunciation of the Mills bill found expression in the platform.

When the reading of the report had been completed. Mr. Marine, of Maryland, moved that it be adopted by a rising vote. He said this is the greatest utterance that this great party has ever made and should be adopted unanimously.

Mr. Horr, of Michigan, seconded the motion and demanded the previous question which was ordered and the report was adopted unanimously by a standing vote amid great enthusiasm.

MAKING NOMINATIONS.

The calling of the states for nominees was then began. When California was called Haymond said that the California delegation, whose position was well known here, asked the convention to pass California for the present.

HAWLEY NAMED.

Warner, of Connecticut, when that state was called, presented, without further remarks, the name of Hon. Joseph R. Hawley.

GRESHAM'S NAME.

When Illinois was called Leonard Swett presented the name of Walter Q. Gresham.

SWETT NOMINATES GRESHAM.

Mr. Leonard Swett, in nominating Gresham, recalled the scenes of twenty-eight years ago, when Lincoln was nominated, and spoke of the four years of war and the twenty years of peace of republican rule since then, of which we may well say with Webster: "The past, at least, is secure." Turning then to the question: "Who is now the fittest man to represent the sixty millions of our people as president," he offered Walter Q. Gresham. He then briefly sketched his life. "Born fifty-seven years ago, in Indiana, he spent one-third of his life on a farm, organized the party of Fremont in his county, when it contained but four persons. In 1860 he was elected to the legislature, where in 1861 he did valuable service, aiding Gov. Morton to meet the call for troops. Organizing a regiment he marched to Kentucky under Sherman, was with Grant at Shiloh and Vicksburg, served in the Atlanta campaign, where he was severely wounded near the place where his leader, McPherson, fell." The speaker spoke in warmest terms of his service as United States judge, declaring him to be the living ideal of the Grecian image of justice, unable to see the rank or standing of those seeking his judgment, but only weighing the merits of the case. He compared Gresham's candidacy to that of Lincoln's, showing close resemblance. Like Lincoln, Gresham has a heart in sympathy with the sons of toil, for he has labored with them in sunshine and cold. Concluding he said: "The people have a right to demand that there shall be a higher standard of integrity than that the president shall, in his letter of acceptance, pledge himself to one term and then by every official act afterwards work for a second nomination and appeal to them again for re-election. They have a right to demand that he shall not promise civil service reform with his lips and break every such promise in practice. The strength of Judge Gresham lies in the public belief that he will not do such things, but that he will, if elected, manage public affairs with the same common honesty he has heretofore managed every thing. Therefore, without disparaging in the slightest degree the merits of other candidates, I offer to this convention the rarest of opportunities, but nominate Gresham, and the people will bear him in triumph on their shoulders to the white house and to the official seat of Washington, Lincoln, Grant and Garfield. The reins of government, under the inspiration of his leadership, will be taken from those who imperiled its exisistence and placed in the hands of those who saved it in its powerless weakness and danger. In behalf of the laboring men, of whose struggles he is the living embodiment, in behalf of the capital, whose rights he has guarded and adjusted, in behalf of the soldier, whose garb he has worn with honor in behalf of patrictism and loyalty, of which he is the shining representative and example, and for the state of Lincoln, Grant and Logan, I nominate as a candidate for the president of the United States the son of Illinois, by adoption Walter Q. Gresham."

Mr. Swett could be heard all over the hall and there was a wild demonstration of applause.

Mr. Davis, of Minnesota, seconded Gresham's nomination. He said he came from a state which had no favorite son, but which responded to the spontaniety of the choice of the nation. Mr. Davis' speech was full of well rounded periods, whith were well delivered and provoked continuous applause. When he had concluded, the galleries cheered for nearly a full minute.

On behalf of Mississippi, John R. Lynch, seconded Gresham's nomination. Mr. Lynch alluded to the fact that Mr. Gresham was not a favorite son of Indiana and if the choice of the convention should fall upon that favorite son in the person of Benjamin Harrison—but Mr. Lynch was not permitted to finish his sentence as the mention of Mr. Harrison's name was the signal for an outburst of cheers. The Indiana delegates were on their feet in an instant brandishing canes, waving handkerchiefs and leading the ovation which the convention paid to Indiana's favorite son.

When order was restored, Mr. Lynch, continuing, said: "If Harrison was selected his friends would be more for the success of the ticket than would the friends of Walter Q. Gresham."

Mr. McCall, of Massachusetts, also seconded Judge Gresham's nomination.

The nomination was further seconded by Mr. Rector, of Texas.

GENERAL HARRISON.

When Indiana was called and Governor Porter mounted the platform to place Mr. Harrison in nomination, a round of cheers were given, and one enthusiastic individual rose and waved a mammoth red flag on which was inscribed, in large gilt letters, the name of Harrison. Governor Porter was given a warm welcome.

Governor Porter began by calling attention to the fact that in 1880 Mr. Conkling, on being asked how New York would go in November, asked how Indiana would go in October. The party was well organized and the 7,000 republican majority in Indiana in October presaged the New York victory in November. Indiana was no longer an October state, but was never better organized than now for the republican party. Why not take advantage of the opportunity offered by the action of the democratic party toward Indiana and seize victory? He went on to speak of Harrison's career, making emphatic the fact that he was self reliant, having worked himself up by his own merits and not by any outside help. He went on to cite the immortal services of Harrison's ancestry, arguing that the son of such an ancestor could be relied on to do honor to their memory by his own achievements. Mr. Porter spoke with impressiveness and force and appealed more to the judgment of the convention than to its sentiments.

The Gresham men in the galleries cried out the name of their favorite when Governor Porter mentioned Harrison as Indiana's choice, to which he responded with emphasis that he voiced the unanimous and earnest sentiment of the Indiana delegation in presenting Senator Harrison's name.

ADJOURNED FOR DINNER.

At the conclusion of Governor Porter's speech, on motion of Mr. Brogan, of Tennessee, the convention took a recess until 3 o'clock.

IN SESSION AGAIN.

The convention was called to order for the afternoon session at 3:04 p. m.

No One Authorized to Speak for Mr. Blaine.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The Tribune of this morning has the following:

LONDON, June 20.—Mr. Blaine asks me to say that all rumors in the United States pretended to give letters or dispatches from him or any of his party touching political topics of any kind may be promptly discredited unless signed by Blaine himself.

He has sent nothing whatever on the presidential question except his Florence and Paris letters, and had no correspondence of any kind with any gentleman named in connection with the republican nomination. Blaine is now on the borders of Scotland pursuing his coaching tour.

Our Billy Wilson.

Chicago Special to Cincinnati Enquirer:

Billy Wilson, of Fort Wayne, is here, practically covered with Gresham badges. His friends are very sore against the Sherman element. There is an immense delegation here from Fort Wayne. Many more would have come, but claim that the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad officials would not give them the necessary cars. Senator Sherman is one of the directors of that road, and it is openly stated that the refusal of cars was due to the interference of Sherman himself. This is the story being told.

Not a Word to Say.

LONDON, June 21,—Hon. James G. Blaine, in an interview at Newcastle, declined to state whether he would accept the nomination for president.

TRAIN ROBBERS.

Three Wabash Passengers Touched for Gold and Jewels.

Three scoundrels, who are supposed to be following in the wake of Barnum's show, yesterday went through three or four passengers on the east-bound express on the Wabash road, due here at 6:30 o'clock, when near Peru. One traveling man lost a valuable gold watch and $50 in money. Seventy-five dollars in currency were stolen, and another lost some valuable papers and a considerable roll of bills. Conductor A. Baldwin and his brakeman endeavored to capture the crooks and struggled with them, but all jumped from the train, which was running thirty miles an hour at the time. The names of the victims could not be learned.

SAW THE SIGHTS.

A Hicksville Youth is Discovered in a Predicament.

Yesterday a party of five young men came to this city from Hicksville, Ohio, to see the circus.

They stopped at the Hedekin house and looked with amazement on the metropolitan wonders.

Four of the visitors went home, but Mr. Clark, the fifth, remained with us. He went out last night to look at social life under mellow lights and at an early hour this morning sought the hotel in a sad predicament.

He was coatless, hatless and shoeless. His watch, his ring, his collar and necktie and some other articles of use were missing. Mr. Clark is silent.

Changes on the Pennsylvania Lines.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 21.—Apropos the resignation of Edmund Smith, first vice-president of the Pennsylvania, to take effect at the close of the month, it is said on high authority that John S. Wilson, at the head of the freight department, will be elected to one of the vice-presidencies. Frank Thomson, second vice-president, will succeed Mr. Smith, and Mr. Wilson steps into Mr. Thomson's present position.

The slate, as reported, is to make Wm. Stewart general freight agent of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg; F. H. Kingsbury, general freight agent of the Pennsylvania road proper, general through freight agent of the Pennsylvania lines, succeeding Mr. Stewart on the lines west of Pittsburg, and H. W. Hibbard, general freight agent of the Vandalia lines, is to succeed Mr. Kingsbury as general through freight agent, which is one of the most important positions in the system.

The Fort Wayne Road.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 21.—The special meeting of the stockholders of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad company, called to decide whether betterment bonds should be issued instead of stock to the Pennsylvania railroad company, has been postponed for three weeks, a full vote of the stock not being presented.

Foreign Notes.

DUBLIN, June 21.—John Dillon, M. P., went to Dunkirk jail yesterday and began serving his six months' sentence.

The report that Stanley is dead is not credited.

It was reported to-day that Balfour, chief secretary for Ireland, intends to resign, but he denies it.

Illness of Congressman Owen.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Congressman W. D. Owen, of the Tenth Indiana district, who has been here several days, is dangerously ill with stomach derangement and his condition is the cause of considerable apprehension on the part of his friends.

Sudden Death of a Physician.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., June 21.—Dr. G. D. Trembly, of Bippus, this county, died very suddenly Tuesday night. He was well known in this county and a prominent Mason and member of the County Medical society.

Vanderbilt Dividends.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The Vanderbilt directors met to-day and declared a dividend on Lake Shore of 2 per cent., Michigan Central 3 per cent. and Canada Southern 1½ per cent.

No Settlement.

PITTSBURG, June 21.—The joint wage committee of the iron manufacturers and amalgamated association are unable to reach a settlement.

A rare chance to hear the Haydn quartet to-morrow night at the Congregational church.

$500 REWARD

is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians. By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache. Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 2002 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROBBINS, Runyan P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty."

CHICAGO'S cool weather reputation lives now in memory.

THE New York democratic press want the convention to nominate Blaine or Depew.

THE democratic prospects in Indiana are just as just as bright as they are painted.

GOSHEN has just voted upon itself a tax of $25,000 to secure the Danville and Sturgis railway.

HON. JOHN C. NEW telegraphed the Indianapolis Journal that Gresham was out of the race. We shall see.

THE republicans returning from Chicago are not as enthusiastic as the rock-ribbed element of that party would like to see.

THE young German emperor will grow wiser with age, and lay aside his war spirit for peaceful and profitable pursuits. Bismarck still lives.

THE primary election for delegates to the democratic county convention occurs to-morrow afternoon and evening. The county convention meets Saturday next.

LAFAYETTE furnished free transportation and paid the expenses of the 350 employes of the car works who went to Chicago to boom Gresham. It was not a popular uprising.

THE SENTINEL gives the news of the republican convention and gives it all twelve hours in advance of any other newspaper. This is no small task, but it is characteristic of THE SENTINEL.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND will receive the committee appointed to notify him of his renomination on the 26th inst., and the same committee will afterwards visit Columbus for the purpose of notifying Mr. Thurman of his nomination. This is a time honored formality.

MR. JOHN M. THURSTON, the temporary chairman of the national republican convention, is the general solicitor of the Union Pacific railroad, and a lobbyist and a monopolist. There are entirely too many of his kind high in the councils of the republican party to suit the people.

THE republican enthusiasm at Chicago is accounted for. Some one figures Mr. Blaine's bar'l at five millions, Depew's, two millions; Morton's, seven millions; Alger's, four millions; Sherman's, two millions; Phelps', five millions; Stanford's, ten millions; Rusk's, one million.

THE ship building program in the naval bill, as reported, provides for four vessels as against six last year, but the amount of displacement tonenage in the four ships of this bill is 19,000 as against 23,000 tons in the six ships of 1887. The estimated cost of the four is to be $7,700,000, as against $8,768,000 for the six ships. It will be noticed that the average cost of last year's ships was about $370 per ton of displacement, while in this year's vessels an average of $400 par ton is allowed. The proposed war vessels are to be as speedy as possible and as good as any that plough the seas.

ONE of the beauties of a high protective war tariff is that of Carnegie and Blaine in Scotland. Blaine is Carnegie's guest on a pleasure trip. The latter is worth $20,000,000 made in this country by the beauties of a high protective tariff, while sitting in the coach with him is James G. Blaine, whose advocacy of a high tariff made such a robbery possible, while Carnegie's great iron and steel works in Pennsylvania are closed and guarded by Pinkerton's men, simply because the working men employed by Carnegie will not submit to a further reduction of ten per cent. from the pittance which they have been receiving. There is a whole campaign speech in this condition of things.

Four Hundred Fishermen Drowned.

LONDON, June 21.—Detailed accounts of the gales which occurred on the coast of Iceland last month show that 400 French fishermen were drowned. Thirty vessels were wrecked.

ELECTION INSPECTORS.

The County Commissioners Make Appointments.

The county commissioners have appointed the following gentlemen to act as election inspectors for the ensuing year:

First ward—First precinct, Henry Monning; Second precinct, Christian Kramer.

Second ward—First precinct, Maurice Cody; Second precinct, Dennis Monahan.

Third ward—First precinct, Gottlieb Nieman; Second precinct, A. Oppenheimer.

Fourth ward—First precinct, William P. Breen; Second precinct, C. Fred Meyers.

Fifth ward—First precinct, M. F. Schmeizer; Second precinct, Peter Hohnhouse.

Sixth ward—First precinct, Michael Wolf: Second precinct, Thomas Hayes.

Seventh ward—First precinct, W. J. Kerr; Second precinct, John Forbing.

Eighth ward—First precinct, Frank Goeke; Second precinct, Henry Vordermark.

Ninth ward—First precinct, David Hill; Second precinct, C. H. Linker.

Wayne township—First precinct, William Smith; Second precinct, J. Henry Stellhorn.

Washington township—Second precinct, F. W. Geiseking.

Adams township—First precinct, Herman Schneiker; Third precinct, Peter Perequay.

Pleasant township—Second precinct, Thomas Greer.

LOST $20.

A Bloomingdale Man is Touched For That Sum.

Yesterday a sneak thief got into the Strodel boarding house, on the north side, and took a suit of clothes and $20 belonging to one of the lodgers.

The rascal placed the clothes so they were found, but he is enjoying the money.

A Card from Mr. Gladio.

To the Editor of The Sentinel.

The Dispatch of the 14th inst. publishes an article under the caption of "Stroller," in which he attempts to write up my record and states that I "served twelve years as county commissioner," a misrepresentation of three years. "The big county debt of $200,000 was made during his term as commissioner," is another wild statement. The county debt when I went out of office was $111,546.23. In this case he only strolled $88,460 from the truth. When I was elected commissioner but one iron bridge had been built in Allen county. During the nine years I was in office all bridges that had to be rebuilt were made of iron. Though iron bridges cost more than wooden ones they are good substantial structures and do not have to be rebuilt again in a few years. The old Rudisill, Riedmiller and paper mill bridges were examples of such structures that lasts twelve or fifteen years when made of wood. During this same nine years there were extensive additions made to the county asylum.

The little stumpy farm referred to contains 280 acres, which, no doubt, seems small to the owner of the Dispatch. No attention would have been paid to anything in the hash column of the Dispatch, but it was mentioned in another paper as a statement not denied.

Some of the young folks who attend the Methodist church will find themselves arraigned before a justice's court some Monday morning, for getting too gay during services.

Messrs. S. Smith, S. Kime and G. W. Kime are organizing a band with five pieces. The expect to take part in the coming campaign.

Quite an accident occurred last Sunday. While J. Akins had the belle of the town out riding, his horse, which he calls "Slow Go," got frightened, upsetting the buggy, kicking the dash board off, and demoralizing the rig so that they had to go afoot for three or four miles, and when he got through kicking his name was "Go Slow." Luckily no one was hurt. Don't feed too heavy, J.

Happiness and Health

Are important problems, the former depending greatly on the latter. Everyone is familiar with the healthy properties of fruit, and no one can afford to be sick and miserable while the pleasant California concentrated liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, may be had of our enterprising druggists, Theime & Gross.

Rev. H. H. Fairall, D. D., editor of the Iowa Methodist, says editorially, in the November (1883) number of his paper: "We have tested the merits of Ely's Cream Balm, and believe that, by a thorough course of treatment, it will cure almost every case of catarrh. Ministers, as a class are afflicted with head and throat troubles, and catarrh seems more prevalent than ever. We cannot reccommend Ely's Cream Balm too highly."

a man for groaning when he has Rheumatism or Neuralgia. The pain is simply awful. No torture in the ancient times was more painful than these twin diseases. But—oughtn't a man to be blamed if, having Rheumatism or Neuralgia, he wont use Athlophoros, when it has cured thousands who have suffered in the same way? It has cured hundreds after physicians have pronounced them incurable.

"The skill of five physicians could not cure me of Rheumatism which had settled in the hips, neck and shoulders. So intense was the pain that sleep was almost impossible. The first dose of Athlophoros gave me relief, and the third enabled me to sleep for four and a half hours without waking. I continued its use and am now well."

SAN FRANCISCO EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION.

Via the Wabash Railway.

The National Educational Association will hold its annual meeting in San Francisco, Cal., July 12th to 20th, 1888. From the program already announced it is evident that this meeting will be of more than ordinary interest. Many of the prominent educators of the country will be present and participate in the proceedings.

Expecting that very many professional teachers, and others feeling an interest in educational work, will embrace this occasion to visit the Pacific Slope and to see the wonders of that "Western Italy" and of the vast intermediate mountain region, the Wabash railway has arranged to sell, at cheap rate, Excursion Tickets to San Francisco, with a liberal limit of time and a wide choice of routes both going and returning.

Tickets will be on sale from June 23 to July 12, inclusive, and will be good going, for thirty days from date of sale, but in no case later than July 18. The returning limit is ninety days from date of sale; giving ample time for extended travel or sojourn; even during the whole summer, upon the Pacific coast. Moreover, stop over privileges will be freely granted anywhere west of the Missouri river or of St. Louis, within the going or returning limits of the time.

A choice is given of seventeen different routes going, and twenty-one returning.

The car service over the Wabash line to St. Louis or Kansas City will include the familiar Wabash railway features of free Reclining Chair Cars, Wagner Sleepers, Wabash Dining Cars, etc., etc., and beyond these points it will be the comfortable and elegant service which prevails upon the several transcontinental lines.

Why You Feel

So weak and exhausted is because your blood is impure. As well expect the sanitary condition of a city to be perfect with defiled water and defective sewerage, as to expect such a complicated piece of mechanism as the human frame to be in good order with impure blood circulating even to its minutest veins. Do you know that every drop of your two or three gallons of blood passes through the heart and lungs in about two and a half minutes, and that, on its way, it makes bone and muscle, brain and nerve, and all other solids and fluids of the body? The blood is the great nourisher, or, as the Bible terms it,

"The Life of the Body."

Is it any wonder, then, that if the blood be not pure and perfect in its constituents, you suffer so many indescribable symptoms?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla stands "head and shoulders" above every other Alterative and Blood Medicine. As proof, read these reliable testimonies:

G. C. Brock, of Lowell, Mass., says: "For the past 25 years I have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In my opinion, the best remedial agencies for the cure of all the diseases arising from impurities of the blood are contained in this medicine."

Eugene I. Hill, M. D., 381 Sixth Ave., New York, says: "As a blood-purifier and general builder-up of the system, I have never found anything to equal Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It gives perfect satisfaction."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla proves equally efficacious in all forms of Scrofula, Boils, Carbuncles, Eczema, Humors, Lumbago, Catarrh, &c.; and is, therefore, the very best in use. "It beats all," says Mr. Cutler, of Cutler Brothers & Co., Boston, "how

DECOLLETE STYLES.

Views on the Subject Not Exactly in Accord with Those of "Sassi."

[Chicago News.]

The decollete styles of dress in vogue among American women who possess evening toiletes and opportunity to display them, has been repeatedly censured as immodest. There's not the slightest question to be raised upon this point. No one gainsays the fact that the low-necked and no-sleeved bodice, as known to denizens of the United States, more frequently traverses the line of modesty than otherwise.

But beyond this justifiable charge, there's another that cannot but be apparent to any woman of good taste, who puts her faculties of observation and reflection to work. The evening dress that consists mostly of an extended skirt and a broad expanse of uncovered neck and arms is not a pleasing spectacle. It is a deliberate manifestation of crude ideas. It tells conclusively the story that the woman who wears it comes of a race new to full-dress regime. It lets out to all the world that the wearer's mother didn't go to parties in low-necked gowns. The woman who remembers how mamma came to the nursery to kiss the children good-night in a pretty toilet that half disclosed her neck and the glitter of the necklace upon her white throat, doesn't make the mistake of a too expansive uncovering of her bust. To do so unmistakably bespeaks the parvenu.

No matter how beautiful the woman nor how lovely her neck and arms, their complete revelation is not effective. A lavish display of charms is more apt to be too fulsome for attraction.

A glimpse of a snowy neck through a V front, round arms, with a fall of lace or long gloves stretching far beyond the elbows to cover their nakedness, leaves haunting suggestion of beauty in the mind of the beholder quite untinged by any notion of immodest exhibition.

A sweet young creature with dimpled shoulders and wrists never looks more infantile or lovable than in some filmy creation with some round baby waist, cut just as low as it ought to be and not a hair's breadth lower.

A pompadour bodice for a mature woman of fine proportions may give her an air of having been used to purple and fine linen habiliments all her days. But in a gown, the bodice of which slips from narrow shoulder-straps deep down in front and behind, she becomes gross and takes on a look significant of a too-sudden release from the washtub.

The perfect evening toilet could not be one with high, stuffy neck and close sleeves. But the most imperfect evening gown is the one with the faint apology for sleeves in the shape of narrow strapsand where the bodice stops in the middle of the bust line.

The decollete waist, where even shoulder-straps are ignored, is unworthy of consideration as attire. It is not attire and it is absolutely inexcusable for any woman to assume that it is.

Medicinal Value of Water.

Dr. Titus Munson Coan makes the following remarks on the use of water:

Ordinary drinking water, if taken in large quantities, acts as a solvent and a diuretic, and also increases the perspiration if the temperature of the air be high. Taken in the quantity of one or two quarts at a time, the diluent effect of water is often sufficient to eliminate an excess of alcohol from the blood, as after taking too much wine. Another effect of large draughts of water is to make the pulse slower, and to diminish slightly the normal temperature of the body.

Increase of weight has been claimed as a result of systematic water-drinking on retiring for the night. The latest researches do not bear out this conclusion. Water thus taken will prevent any actual loss of weight, but it is not shown that it will do anything more. With the addition of a moderate stimulant, however, it has often a decidedly fattening effect.

Swallowed as hot as it can be borne, pure water has lately come into vogue as an efficient remedy for dyspeptic and rheumatic ailments, and for reducing the obesity consequent upon idle habits and overeating. It is not yet shown that these facts are caused by the hot water. I have seen cases in which this treatment, conjoined with a diet almost exclusively composed of lean meat and stale bread, has been followed by a great reduction of the invalid's weight, but the result seemed to me due to the withholding of superabundant food from the patient and not to any positive virtue in the hot water itself. In dyspepsia the hot water treatment sometimes succeeds for the same reason. Nature, if given a chance, has a good deal to say in the cure of the ailments that result from misuse of the digestive organs. But this treatment has the double advantage of giving the disturbed stomach comparative rest and of gently stimulating it to the digestive duties that it cannot wholly forego, unless the patient is to be sustained by faith alone. Of the internal use of mineral waters this is not the occasion to speak.

The Laundry.

Wash pillow-slips and stockings wrong side out. Javelle water will often take out obstinate mildew. Table linen does not need to be boiled every time it is washed, but it should be scalded. Ruffles and tucks require only half as much time to iron as puffings and delicate laces. Flannels should be washed first in warm suds, and rinsed in water of the same temperature. Articles of a delicate blue should be washed in water to which an ounce of sugar of lead has been added. Ginghams and calicoes should be ironed on the wrong side to produce the luster effect seen in new material. Table linen should be ironed single until quite dry, then folded by the thread or rolled upon a round stick as long as the cloth is wide. Recent fruit stains are easily removed from linen. The Journal of Commerce says: "It is seldom necessary to do more than to hold the linen tightly stretched over the tub and pour boiling water through it. No soap should be used until the stain disappears. When linen is thus stained a very wise plan is to rub the stained spot as full as possible with common table salt. This will prevent its drying until it is washed. When hot water is poured through it will easily remove all vestige of the stains. If the linen has been long stained, and washing has not removed it, sprinkle it with water just to dampen it, and rub into the stain on both sides, common yellow soap until it is thoroughly saturated, then lay on mixture of cold starch, very thick, and rub that well in, and expose to the sun and air. If a day or two of this exposure does not wholly remove the stain, repeat the process. We have never known it to fail."—Baltimore American.

The Fort Wayne club played an exhibition game of ball at South Bend today.

Two hundred people came from Huntington yesterday to the Barnum-Bailey show.

John Ruefle, a patient at the state insane hospital, has been discharged as cured.

Mr. C. M. Crawford, the postmaster of Pierceton, Ind., was in the city last evening.

Mr. Wm. Dougall, of Joliet, Ill., is in the city, the guest of his brother, Capt. Allen Dougall.

Hon. Robert Lowry is presiding as judge over the Noble county Circuit court at Albion this week.

Frank Pyke, formerly night bill clerk at the Nickel Plate freight office, has been promoted to day duty.

The art exhibition of St. Augustine's academy, at Library Hall, will continue till 10 o'clock Friday morning.

After completing its tour of Indiana, Ohio and Michigan the Barnum-Bailey circus will go west as far as Omaha.

The colored masons of Fort Wayne organized a chapter and commandery on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

Mr. D. C. Fisher has returned from Chicago, where he engaged additional attractions for the Fair association's Fourth of July celebration.

The board of commissioners of Adams county paid out $728.98 as aid to the poor; and refused to allow additional bills to the amount of $500 at their June term.

The Columbia City Post says: "John Bresnehan, of Fort Wayne, visited in town over Sunday.—Mr. Dennis O'Hern, the gentlemanly operator of the Wabash depot, Fort Wayne, visited in this place Sunday."

Barnum's circus did a great business in this city. The cool wave last evening made it pleasant to sit through the performance, which was all that the most critical could expect. It is the greatest circus in the world.

The Ancient Order of United Workman meets to-night and will initiate new members into the order. The lodge is becoming popular and every meeting night new applicotians are sent in for admission into the order.

The Fort Wayne club was beaten at Elkhart yesterday by a score of 8 to 2. Captain McDarby telegraphs that he couldn't have beaten Elkhart yesterday with the Chicago team. The home nine play at Logansport to-morrow and the day after.

While at Indianapolis, Dr. George W. Loag was questioned by a Sentinel reporter as to the democratic situation in this district. He aptly replied: "We're in a good fix, of course. We would not have it any other way. I have no doubt as to the democratic success in the fall."

At the Pennsylvania railroad locomotive shops, at Altoona, the other day, a locomotive weighing 110,000 pounds was built in sixteen hours and fifty-five minutes and turned out ready for use, thus lowering the record which has previously been twenty-four hours, the time taken by the Baldwin locomotive works to build an engine.

The Huntington Democrat produces a story about a mysterious ball of fire which is alleged to appear at each change of the moon. It rises up in the air and then settles back into the earth after a few moments. The light is very brilliant and is said to appear on the farm of James Marshall, near Pleasant Plain, Huntington county.

The remains of Samuel Jones, a prominent citizen of Warren, west of Montpelier, were disinterred at Good cemetery for burial at the Masonic cemetery. It required the combined strength of six men to raise the coffin out of the grave. The box was opened, when it was found that the body had petrified. The features were the same as at his death, fifteen years ago. It is one of the most remarkable cases of petrification on record.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Emma, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Stellhorn, to Mr. Louis Niemeyer, the popular Calhoun street hatter. The marriage ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents, No. 22 Madison street, by Rev. Sauer, of the St. Paul's Lutheran church. The young couple dispensed with a wedding trip and will go to housekeeping at 126 Harrison street.

The trip of the working men to Chicago, under the auspices of some of Gresham's friends, was not as pleasant as it might have been made. The ride was a hot and dirty one, the parade in Chicago fatiguing, and an all-night ride back. The crowd from Lafayette fared much better. The men were provided for and it is said received $3 each for making the trip besides their entertainment. This has caused some dissatisfaction among the boys who went from here.

Yesterday Mr. C. L. Olds entertained a party of Gallion, Ohio, officials in this city and in the evening gave them an opportunity to inspect the electric light plant with a view of adopting the Jenney spark for their city. The party consisted of Councilmen John Blyth, Jacob Petri, Thomas Mackey, Thomas O'Neil, S. Bookwalter, Alve Mode, H. H. Solliday, J. S. Zimmerman, City Clerk, Chris E. Else and Treasurer H. C. Sponhauer. Mr. Else is also city editor of the Gallion Inquirer. They were shown every courtesy here and express themselves as delighted with the city.

Mr. W. D. Schiefer went to Chicago to-day.

Mr. George Esmond, of Medicine Lodge, Kan., is in the city.

The work of laying cedar blocks on Columbia street will begin next week.

The county commissioners concluded their session yesterday and adjourned.

The police report that a five year old child was lost last night and is still at large.

Hon. B. S. Gray, of Portland, is in the city. He is a candidate for congress down there.

The insurance on Mr. Jacob Pierson's house was $3,000, not $300 as erroneously stated.

Enoch Joslin and Bert Robinson were fined for drunkenness this morning at the mayor's court.

The average young American heaves a sigh now that the circus is over, but keeps his eye steadily on the Fourth of July, which is less than two weeks away.

Mr. Will McKinnie is at home from Pittsburg. The marriage of his sister, Miss Esther, to Dr. Bingham, was a very brilliant affair. The wedding gifts were elaborate.

Cottage meeting of the Railroad Y. M. C. A. to-morrow evening at the home of Mr. Wilson McQuiston, No. 43 Second street, at 7:30 standard time. Everybody invited.

Mrs. A. C. Trentman will attend the commencement exercises at the Convent of St. Mary's of the Woods, in southern Indiana, next Saturday. Her daughter is one of the brightest pupils of the school.

Clark Fairbanks has been given a permit to build a one-story frame house on lot 25, White's addition, to cost $450; and John Seiber to build a two-story brick store building on lot 119, old plat, to cost $2,000.

Messrs. John Humphrey, J. McCarty and Fred. Russlow went to Rome City this morning on a fishing expedition. Two or three black bottles protruded from their pockets which the fisherman will use to coax up the timid finny tribe that inhabit the lakes.

The funeral of Mrs. William Gaffney occurred Monday and was very largely attended, showing that feeling and friendship for the family is widespread. Rev. Father O'Leary preached the funeral sermon at the Cathedral, and paid a very eloquent tribute to the deceased.

A reception will be tendered Mr. and Mrs. Louis Neimeyer this evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stellhorn, 22 Madison street. Mr. Neimeyer is a member of the Euphonia double quartet, and that musical organization will make the evening a pleasant one.

E. E. Dusenberry, secretary, treasurer and manager of Round Island summer resort at Rome City, was in durance vile last week. He was a star boarder of Richard Williams, sheriff of Noble county, under indictment for selling liquor on Sunday to two minors. Mr. Dusenberry swore that he was in no way connected with Round Island, that he had no interest there and that he did not sell the beer. He was let go, free.

A Rome City correspondent writes the Kendallville News: "The Caledonian society, of Fort Wayne, had an enjoyable time at their picnic last Friday. They carried out their program to the letter, which consisted of throwing sledges, leaping over a pole, foot racing, boat racing, sack racing, etc. Their Highland piper was one of the attractions. Nothing marred their pleasant time. They are certainly a very highly cultured people, and observed all the rights and priveleges due a gentlemen or lady. We always welcome the Caledonians. Come again, come often.

The remains of Mr. Thomas W. Leighton, who was killed on the railroad at Minneapolis, are expected to arrive here to-night. They will be taken to the home of his relatives at No. 56 North Cass street. The funeral will occur to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock from the Cathedral. Mr. Leighton was born and raised in this city and has a host of friends who speak of him as an excellent and most exemplary young man. He was twenty-six years of age and so full of promise that the announcement of his death comes with the deepest sorrow to all who knew him.

Card of Thanks.

I desire in a special manner to thank my friends and neighbors for the kind sympathy they manifested during the long sickness in my family, and to assure them that I appreciate very much all they have done, and that I shall always hold them in grateful remembrance.

WM. GAFFNEY.

The St. Paul's M. E. Church Fair a Grand Success.

A large crowd attended the fair last evening.

If you desire to spend an evening pleasantly, attend the church fair on Walton avenue.

There will be several attractions at the fair to-night.

The Gypey tent was well patronized last night.

The public is most cordially invited to the fair this evening.

Come and have a good time at Simpson Fair to-night. We sell things very cheap.

ECHOES OF THE RAIL.

The News of the Day as it Comes From the Railroads and Manufactories Bunched Together.

The railroads are announcing reduced rates for the Fourth of July.

The Pennsylvania Company base ball club have handsome new uniforms.

The Nickel Plate and Pittsburg are having a big passenger excursion travel this week.

The collection of news items around the railroad shops is hard work these dull, hot mornings.

Messrs. Wade and Stevens, of the Wabash, were in the city yesterday inspecting the company's property.

A large force of men are engaged in laying new ties for the Pittsburg track between Hanna and Lafayette streets.

The Literary society of the Salem Reformed church left the south depot this morning with a pleasant excursion party for Rome City.

Three large excursion trains filled with people returning from Chicago, passed through the city this morning, at 7 o'clock, going east.

The two engines injured in the wreck at the Nickel Plate bridge yesterday are in the Pittsburg shops for repairs. They are pretty badly wrecked.

The office of the Pittsburg machine shops was pretty badly drenched last night by the water which in some manner escaped from one of the boilers.

The red bandana is used very extensively among the employes in the shops. It has always been popular with them, but has been used more than ever since the nomination of Thurman.

One of the smart drivers on the Hanna street car line is a man named Rooney. The company ought to give him a medal and a retired salary. Our reporter will pay his share of the latter.

The politicians are still working the boys in the shops, but have been unable to make but little progress this week on account of the interest that centers at Chicago during the convention.

A. J. Brillhart, truck riveter in the Pittsburg car shops, was injured yesterdry by a piece of steel flying up and hitting him on the arm, while he was at work. The injury will lay him up for a week or two.

Frank Cherry and J. W. McGowan, of the Pittsburg boiler shops, went to Lima, Ohio, this morning. Barnum's circus shows at that place to-day, and this fact may have something to do with their presence in Lima.

The excursion of the Pennsylvania company's employes to Warsaw takes place Saturday. It will be the largest of the season, as the families of the employes accompany them, and are furnished transportation free.

The Grand Rapids railroad have a large number of new passengor cars in their yards that have a seating capacity for eighty-five persons, being twenty-five more than the regular cars. These new cars are strong and very handsome.

Charley Taylor, machinist in the Bass works, thinks it will be Gresham; John T. Wichman says it will be Depew, and Henry Zanner is willing to bet on Blaine. All the boys are democrats and enthusiastic for Cleveland and Thurman.

A general order has been issued from the general headquarters of the Pennsylvania railroad company prohibiting the running of Sunday excursion trains on any of the lines which it owns or operates. The only exception to this order which will be allowed will be in the case of religious gatherings, and then only when the regular trains won't accomodate the crowds.

The Pittsburg works now have four badly wrecked locomotives in the round house for repairs. They represent the work of but a single day's wrecks. Two of them are from the wreck of yesterday morning at the Nickel Plate bridge and the other two are from the last night's wreck in the yards. The damage done to these four locomotives runs up to several thousand dollars.

Wm. Lerch is one of the machinists on the night force at the Bass works. He took a dandy 12 o'clock lunch with him last evening when he went to work and deposited it in its usual place. At the midnight hour he sought his basket, only to find it gone. Some tramp, who had been loitering around the shops, had stolen it, and William was compelled to accept the kindly hospitality of one of his fellow workmen.

Mr. C. R. Higgins, chief clerk in the Pennsylvania company's offices at this place, will issue the passes to the employes of the shops who go to Warsaw next Saturday on their annual excursion. The clerks of the various departments are now taking the names of those who intend to go and the number of tickets they desire. These lists will be reported to Mr. Higgins and he will issue the required number of passes.

The boys of the Pennsylvania base ball club have elected J. H. Sloan, the clerk of the machine department as their manager. It is a good selection. "Jim" can manage anything from a base ball club to a political canvass, and in the latter he is a decided success when he sees fit to boom a personal friend. Manager Sloan will bring the boys through all right Saturday, in their game with the Warsaw club, and will see to it that victory perches, with a big V, upon the banners of the Pittsburg.

After scanning the annual report of the Pennsylvania company, the Richmond Telegram says: "There are but few persons who stop to think how much money a railroad company pays out annually. On the Pittsburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis division there was disbursed, last year, to employes, conducting transporation, motive power, maintenance of way, maintenance of cars and general expenses $4,017,218.65. This division extends from Columbus to Pittsburg. On the same account there was paid out on the Chicago, St. Louis and Pittsburg, $4,311,164.91. This line is from Indianapolis to Columbus, and from Chicago to Bradford Junction. On the Little Miami $1,629,059.71 was disbursed. The total sum paid out on these three divisions reached $9,956,443.37.

Supt. John Wilkinson.

The county commissioners yesterday reappointed Mr. John Wilkinson superintendent of the county asylum farm for a period of two years. Mr. Wilkinson is a splendid officer, no man aims to do his whole duty better and this reappointment is a source of congratulation all around.

The hot wave continues.

REV. S. A. NORTHROP.

His Prayer Before the National Convention Cheered.

The telegram to THE SENTINEL yesterday briefly noted that Rev. S. A. Northrop opened the republican convention with prayer.

The Chicago Daily News says:

"When the Rev. Stephen A. Northrop, of Fort Wayne, Ind., began his prayer there was a hush in the convention hall and every word of it could be distinctly heard. It was considerably longer than that of the gentleman who petitioned the throne of grace yesterday, but it was an eloquent appeal withal and held the audience to very close attention for a prayer.

The prayer was that the Almighty might decree that the selection of the convention and its action in every respect might have the sympathy of the masses. He invoked God's special favor upon those who were the representatives of the various states. He asked the Divine blessing to rest upon the great party represented here to-day, and returned thanks for its glorious past and its many and great successes. It had come out of tribulation and at once risen to dignity and command, nourished by the blood of martyrs—our brave soldier boys. He prayed God's blessing to rest upon the soldier of the nation who is now languishing on the bed of sickness. He invoked the Divine presence in all that the convention did, through Jesus Christ.

There was loud applause when the prayer was ended."

The Chicago Mail adds:

"A pleasant looking lady in a brown dress was escorted to a seat on the platform, and there was a buzz of inquiry a to whom she might be, which was stilled instantly when it was learned that she was the wife of the Rev. S. A. Northrop, of the First Baptist church, of Fort Wayne, Ind., who was to offer the opening prayer."

REV. NORTHROP'S PRAYER IN FULL.

Let us unite in prayer. Almighty Father, Lord of hosts, before Thy gracious throne we would reverently bow ourselves, recognizing Thee in all the solemn and eventful affairs of life. Thou hast been our help in centuries past. Thou art our hope for ages. We thank Thee for Thy loving kindness and Thy tender mercies. We thank Thee for all of the memories that cluster around this sacred and impressive hour. We thank Thee that Thou hast inclined our hearts towards Thee, and we realize that without Thee we can do nothing. We invoke the divine blessing to rest upon this assembly in all of its present responsibilities; in all of its present needs and demands. We thank Thee for divine and civil protection. We thank Thee for all the rich blessings that come to us to-day from a glorious past. We thank Thee that Thou dost lead us to depend upon Thee in every deliberation, and especially upon those things that pertain to our national and spiritual welfare. Thou hast strengthened the bars of our gates, Thou hast made peace within our borders, Thou hast filled our land with the finest wheat; Thou hast not dealt so with any other nation. We thank Thee, Father, that to-day we may feel in our hearts the inspiration of this hour, and we pray that Thy blessings may rest upon the assembled representative hosts that are gathered here to-day from all parts of our broad land. Help them to realize the grave responsibilities resting upon them in the choice of a standard-bearer who shall come from the people and be of the people, one who shall partake of the sympathies of the masses, for Thou didst say when Thou was on earth, Oh, blessed Christ, come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. We invoke Thy special favor to rest upon those who are leaders of this convention, and those who are the representatives of the people in the various states. We ask Thy blessings to rest upon the great party that is represented here to-day. We thank Thee for its glorious past and success, though indeed it has come out of tribulation and has washed its robes in the sacrificial blood of multitudes of brave soldier boys. We pray Thee, Father, that thy blessing may rest upon the soldier of a nation who is now languishing upon a bed of sickness. May the comforts of the Holy Spirit be with him, and we pray Thee, if consistent with thy will, that thou wouldst restore him to his family and to this nation. We ask Thee now that Thou wouldst favor this convention, representing the people and for the people, by Thy presence, and may its deliberations be in keeping with Thy will. We ask it in the name of the worthy Christ of Calvary. Amen.

AN INSANE MAN.

Leaves His Home and Can Not be Found

George Duplain, who is simple minded and can not make himself understood, left his home on Barthold street, last night, and has not been seen since.

His relatives are alarmed for his safety and the officers have searched in vain for him.

Two Casualties.

Adam Hite, a street car driver, was caught between passing cars yesterday and knocked senseless. His scalp was cut and for a time his injuries were regarded as dangerous. He rallied, however, and is about to-day as usual.

Al. Herald, a young man employed by Ryan Bros., was badly hurt by the breaking of a pulley at the Wabash freight yards yesterday. He was taken home in the "Little" and is pretty sick. He will recover however.

FOR SALE.—One hundred sheep. Call on Wm. [illegible], 325 West [illegible] street.

ANOTHER WRECK.

Two Locomotives Embrace in the Pittsburg Yards and Cause a Pretty Bad Wreck.

About midnight last night a locomomotive on the Grand Rapids road was returning to the city with a number of empty passenger cars, which had been used for hauling the excursion people who attended Barnum's circus yesterday. A Pittsburg freight train was standing on the side track in the company's yards. The switch was open, and the Grand Rapids train ran onto the side track and crashed into the Pittsburg locomotive with a fearful force.

The engineers and firemen jumped from their engines, but the locomotives were terribly wrecked, the front of both being crushed in a fearful manner. They were both taken to the Pittsburg shops for repairs. The loss caused by the wreck will probably amount to a few thousand dollars.

RECEIVER M'NULTA.

He Makes a Great Showing For the Wabash For May.

Receiver McNulta has issued his report of the receipts and disbursements of the Wabash railway for the month of May. The recapitulation shows that the amount of cash on hand at the close of April, as per report filed, was $150,223.98. The receipts during May, on accounts prior to April 1, 1887, were $157.37, while the receipts on current account—including returns from station agents on freight and ticket account, cash fares from conductors, sundry railroads on foreign ticket and joint freight accounts, the Pacific Express and Union News companies, the United States war department for freight and passenger transportation, and from miscellaneous sources—were $716,300.69, making a total of $866,682.04. The disbursements on accounts prior to April 1, 1887, were $306.98, and on current account $658,319.91, making the total disbursements $658,626 89. The current liabilities include balances due to other railroads or transportation companies on account of interchange of traffic, operating expenses, track, road, and bridge rentals, supplies and materials, etc. The balance on hand May 31, 1888, was $208,055.15.

Eulogy on the New Haven Base Ball Players.

The first New Haven nine having been cordially invited by the East Jefferson nine to play a game of ball on the latter's diamond on the 17th, came to the ground in due time, and as the East Jeffersons had never played many games of ball, they did not expect to win, accordingly both captains agreed that the East Jeffersons should buy the ball which the New Haven nine had brought with them, no matter who won the game. The game was played, which resulted as was expected, but while the crowd was listening to the reading of the score, the fellow who caught last, with the ekill of an experienced pilfer sneaked the ball into his buggy and with two companions were soon driving away at full speed, waving their hands and thinking they had played a nice trick on the Jefferson fellows. But lo! when the ball was missed the East Jeffsons were after them in full chase and after a two mile chase they were captured. They sternly denied having it, but when they found that their captors were in earnest they meekly handed it over. Before the game began they boasted of having stolen a ball bat from the Fort Wayne printers who played there a week previous.

We wish them success in playing ball and kindly invite them back again but we sincerly hope that in their pilfering they will be as neatly caught as at Jefferson township. SPECULATOR.

Obeying the Letter.

In "a government of laws and not of men," as the constitution of Massachusetts puts it, the people strenuously insist that the forms of law shall always be observed. A long while ago, the burghers of Stralsund, a city of North Germany, were made indignant by seeing a notice, signed only by the Governor, posted on the Rathhaus, ordering every one passing through the streets at night to carry a lantern.

As the streets were not lighted, the object of the Governor was to secure public safety and convenience. But the burghers were angry that he should issue the order of his own motion, instead of transmitting it, according to custom, through the town council.

So on the first night after the publication of the mandate, the citizens who went out into the streets, and an unusual number went, provided themselves with lanterns, but put no lights in them.

The next morning another decree came from the angry Governor, ordering that each lantern should be furnished with a candle. When night came, the candles were in the lanterns, in strict compliance with the order, but not one of them was lighted, and again the Governor's purpose was defeated.

Another order was then issued, commanding that each lantern should contain a lighted candle. The citizens obeyed, but hid the lanterns under their cloaks. Upon, this, the Governor became furious, and ordered the citizens, under the penalty of punishment, to expose lighted lanterns to view. The burghers again did just as they were bidden, but provided wicks so tiny that the light thereby produced was no bigger than that of a glow-worm.

The Governor then yielded, and communicated his order through the town council. From that time the streets were properly lighted by numerous lanterns. Moreover the burghers had won the victory finally, and thereafter all orders went through the process of approval.—Youth's Companion.

J. W. Wells, a Pittsburg brakeman, fell from his train at Warsaw to-day and was badly hurt.

ELLA WHEELER WILCOX truly sings: "We build our own ladders to climb to the sky." Certainly we do. And we'd get there, too, if we only built enough ladders and made them long enough. William is for Peace.

BERLIN, June 21.—The Post declares there is no foundation for the idea that a change will be made in the Germany policy averse to Russia. French fears, it says, are also baseless, the moon being more likely to visit the earth than the German emperor to dream of attacking France only to earn laurels. Germany wishes nothing from France but to be let alone. As soon as the French see this, conditions will exist for perpetual peace and friendship. At the same time, the paper says, the tone of the emperor's proclamation may well serve to remind elements unfriendly to Germany in the east or west, in a manner perhaps not agreeable to them, of the Hohenzollern way of waging war, and make clear to them that an unjust attack upon Germany will meet with the French attack of 1870. The emperor will wield his sword like his glorious ancestors, but only in defense of the Fatherland against unjust attacks.

ALL TALK!

Hawley, Gresham and Harrison Announced to the Convention and the Good Work Goes Bobby On.

The Republican Platform in Full—Exciting Scenes and Incidents.

CONVENTION HALL, CHICAGO, June 21.—The convention faces another day's hot work with the glimmer of a ballot at the end of it.

It appears that the probable program for the day is to get through with the platform at the session now about to open, have the nominating speeches disposed of this afternoon or this evening and then proceed to show hands on one ballot and adjourn until to-morrow.

The hope of the Sherman men that Mayor Filler will not be presented appears to be realized.

Chairman Estee has arrived and the delegates come in rapidly. The chairman rapped sharply with his gavel at five minutes past 10 o'clock, asked the delegates to take their seats and called the convention to order.

The invocation was delivered by Rev. Thomas E. Green, of Chicago. Under the direction of the chairman, the secretary called the roll of states for members.

Mr. McKinley, of Ohio, chairman of the resolutions committee, who had just entered the hall, was recognized by the chair, and arose to make the report of the committee. The convention, recognizing him as one of the dark horses in the presidential race and a popular one also, cheered lustily and when McKinley advanced to the platform to read his report, the applause was redoubled and became almost an ovation.

In a clear, distinct voice Mr. McKinley read the committee report as follows:

The Platform.

The republicans of the United States assembled by their delegates in national convention, pause on the threshold of their proceedings to honor the memory of their first great leader, immortal champion of liberty and the rights of the people—Abraham Lincoln, and to cover also with wreaths of imperishable remembrance and gratitude the heroic names of our later leaders, who have more recently been called away from our councils—Grant, Garfield, Arthur, Logan and Conkling. May their memories be faithfully cherished.

We also recall with our greetings and with prayer for his recovery the name of one of our living heroes, whose memory will be treasured in the history, both of republicanism and of the republic, the name of that noble soldier and favorite child of victory—Philip H. Sheridan.

In the spirit of these great leaders, in our own devotion to human liberty and with that hostility to all forms of despotism and oppression, which is the fundamental ideal of the republican party, we send fraternal congratulations to our fellow-Americans of Brazil upon their great act of emancipation which completed the abolition of slavery throughout two American continents.

We earnestly hope we may soon congratulate our fellow citizens of Irish birth upon the peaceful recovery of home rule for Ireland.

We affirm our unswerving devotion to the national constitution and to the indissolved union of the states, to the autonomy reserved to the states under the constitution, to personal rights and liberties of the citizens in all states and territories in the union and especially to the supreme and sovereign right of every lawful citizen, rich or poor, native or foreign born, white or black, to cast one free ballot in public elections and to have that ballot duly counted.

We hold the free and honest popular ballot and the just and equal representation of all the people to be the foundation of our republican government and demand effective legislation to secure the integrity and purity of elections which are the foundations of all public authority.

We charge that the present administration and democratic majority in congress owe their existence to suppression of the ballot by a criminal nullification of the constitution and laws of the United States.

We are uncompromisingly in favor of the American system of protection; we protest against its destruction, as proposed by the president and his party. They serve the interests of Europe. We will support the interests of America. We accept the issue and confidently appeal to the people for their judgment.

The protective system must be maintained. Its abandonment has always been followed by general disaster to all interests except those of the usurer and sheriff. We denounce the Mills bill as destructive to the general business, labor and farming interests of the country and heartily indorse the consistent and patriotic action of the republican representatives in congress in opposing its passage.

We condemn the proposition of the democratic party to place wool on the free list and we insist that the duties thereon shall be adjusted and maintained so as to furnish full and adequate protection to that industry.

The republican party would effect all the needed reduction of the national revenue by repealing the taxes upon tobacco which are an annoyance and burden to agriculture and the tax upon spirits, used in the arts and for mechanical purposes, and by such revision of the tariff laws as will tend to check the imports of such articles as are produced by our people, the production of which gives employment to our labor and release from import duties those articles of foreign production (except luxuries), the like of which cannot be produced at home. If there shall still remain a larger revenue than is required for the wants of the government, we favor the entire repeal of internal taxes rather than the surrender of any part of our protective system at the joint behest of the whisky ring and the agents of foreign manufacturers.

We declare our hostility to the introduction into this country of foreign contract labor and of Chinese labor alien to our civilization and our constitution, and we demand a rigid enforcement of the existing laws against it, and favor such immediate legislation as will exclude such labor from our shores.

We declare our opposition to all combinations of capital, organized in trusts or otherwise, to control arbitrarily the condition of trade among our citizens, and we recommend to congress and the state legislatures, in their respective jurisdictions, such legislation as will prevent the execution of all schemes to oppress the people by undue charges on their supplies, or by unjust rates for the transportation of their products to the market.

We approve the legislation by congress to prevent alike unjust burdens and unfair discriminations between the states.

We reaffirm the policy of appropriating the public lands of the United States to be homesteads for American citizens and settlers, not aliens, which the republican party established in 1862, against the persistent opposition of the democrats in congress, and which has brought our great western domain into such magnificent development.

The restoration of unearned railroad land grants to the public domain for the use of actual settlers, which was begun under the administration of President Arthur, should be continued.

We deny that the democratic party has ever restored one acre to the people, but declare that by the joint action of republicans and democrats, about fifty million of acres of unearned lands, originally granted for the construction of railroads, has been restored to the public domain, in pursuance of the conditions inserted by the republican party in the original grants.

We charge the democratic administration with failure to execute the laws securing to settlers the title to their homesteads, and with using the appropriations made for that purpose to harass innocent settlers with spies and prosecutions under false pretense of exposing frauds and vindicating the law.

The government, by congress of the territories, is based upon necessity only to the end that they may become states in the union. Therefore, whenever the conditions of population, material, resources, public intelligence and morality are such as to insure a stable local government therein, the people of such territories should be permitted, as a right inherent in them, to form for themselves constitutions and state governments and be admitted into the union. Pending the preparation for statehood all officers thereof should be selected from bona fide residents and citizens of the territory wherein they are to serve.

[Here follows the demand for the admission of South Dakota, and for the passage of bills to enable the people of Washington, North Dakota and Montana territories to form constitutions and to establish state governments, and pledging the party to do all in its power to facilitate the admission of the territories of New Mexico, Wyoming, Idaho and Arizona to the enjoyment of self government as states, such of them as are now qualified, as soon as possible, and the others as soon as they may become so.]

The political power of the Mormon church in the territories, as exercised in the past, is a menace of free institutions, too dangerous longer to be suffered. Therefore, we pledge the republican party to appropriate legislation asserting the sovereignty of the nation in all the territories where the same is questioned, and in furtherance of that end, to place upon the statute books legislation stringent enough to divorce the political from the ecclesiastical power and thus stamp out the attendant wickedness of polygamy.

The republican party is in favor of the use of both gold and silver as money and condemns the policy of the democratic administration in its efforts to demonetize silver.

We demand the reduction of letter postage to one cent per ounce.

In republics like ours, where the citizen is the sovereign and official servant, where no power is exercised except by the will of the people, it is important that the sovereign—the people—should possess intelligence. The free school is the promoter of that intelligence, which is to preserve us as a free nation, therefore the state or nation, or both combined, should support free institutions of learning sufficient to afford every child, growing up in the land, an opportunity for a good common school education.

We earnestly recommend that prompt action be taken by congress in the enactment of such legislation as will best secure rehabilitation of our American merchant marine, and we protest against the passage by congress of the free ship bill as calculated to work injustice to labor, by lessening the wages of those engaged in preparing materials, as well as of those directly employed in our ship yards.

We demand appropriation for the early rebuilding of the navy construction, coast fortifications and modern ordinance and other approved modern means of defense for the protection of our defenseless harbors and cities, for the payment of just pensions to soldiers, for necessary works of national importance in the improvement of harbors and channels of the internal coast, wise and foreign commerce for the encouragement of the shipping interests of the Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific states, as well as for the payment on the maturing public debt. This policy will give employment to our laborers, activity to our industries, increase the security of our country, promote trade, open new and direct markets for our produce, and cheapen the cost of transportation. We affirm this to be far better for the country than the democratic policy of loaning government bonds without interest to "pet banks."

The conduct of foreign affairs by the present administration has been distinguished by its inefficiency and its cowardice. Having withdrawn from the senate all pending treaties effected by the republican administration for the removal of foreign burdens and the restrictions upon our commerce and for its extension into better markets, it has neither effected nor proposed any others in their stead. Professing adherence to the Monroe doctrine, it has seen, with idle complacency, the extension of foreign influences in Central America and foreign trade everywhere among our neighbors. It has refused to charter, sanction or encourage any American organization for the constructing of the Nicaragua canal, a work of vital importance to the maintenance of the Monroe doctrine of our national influence in Central and South America and necessary for the development of trade with our Pacific territory, with South America and with the islands and further coasts of the Pacific Ocean.

We arraign the present democratic administration for its weak and unpatriotic treatment of the fisheries question and its pusillanimous surrender of the essential privileges to which our fishing vessels are entitled in in Canadian ports under the treaty of 1818, the reciprocal marine legislation of 1830 and the comity of nations, and which Canadian fishing vessels receive in the ports of the United States.

We condemn the policy of the present administration and democratic majority in congress towards our fisheries as unfriendly and conspicuously unpatriotic and as tending to destroy valuable national industries and indispensible resources of defense against the foreign enemy.

The name of American applies alike to all citizens of the republic and imposes also upon all alike the same obligation of obedience to the laws. At the same time that citizenship is and must be a panoply and safeguard of him who wears it and protect him, whether high or low, rich or poor, in all his civil rights. It should and must afford him protection at home and follow and protect him abroad in whatever land he may be on a lawful errand.

The men who abandoned the republican party in 1884 and continue to adhere to the democratic party have deserted not only the cause of honest government, of sound finance, of freedom and purity of ballot, but especially have deserted the cause of reform in civil service. We will not fail to keep our pledges because they broke theirs, or because their candidate has broken his. We therefore repeat our declaration of 1884 to wit: "The reform of the civil service so auspiciously begun under the republican administration, should be completed by a further extension of the reform system already established by the law to all grades of service to which it is applicable. The spirit and purpose of reform should be observed in all executive appointments, and all laws at variance with the object of existing reform legislation should be repealed to the end that the dangers to free institutions, which lurk in the power of official patronage, may be wisely and effectively avoided."

The gratitude of the nation to the defenders of the union can not be measured by the laws. The legislation of congress should conform to the pledges made by the loyal people and be so enlarged and extended as to provide against the possibility that any man who honorably wore the federal uniform had to become an inmate of the alms house or dependent upon private charity. In the presence of an overflowing treasury, it would be a public scandal to do less for those whose valorous service preserved the government. We denounce the hostile spirit shown by President Cleveland in his numerous vetoes of measures for pension relief and the action of the democratic house of representatives in refusing even the consideration of the general pension legislation.

In support of the principles herewith enunciated we invite the co-operation of the patriotic men of all parties and especially all working men whose prosperity is seriously threatened by the free trade policy of the present administration.

As Mr. McKinley mentioned the names of the dead leaders of the republican party, cheer after cheer ascended, and his allusion to the living hero, Phillip Sheridan, was received with loud applause. But these bursts of enthusiasm were as nothing to the storm of applause and cheers which broke out when Mr. McKinley enunciated the principle of the republican party in regard to protection. Every member of the convention rose to his feet and many spectators followed their example. Fans were waved, handkerchiefs were fluttered, cries were given and shouts of approval found noisy vent. For fully a minute Mr. McKinley was unable to continue on account of the demonstration, which broke out afresh when the denunciation of the Mills bill found expression in the platform.

When the reading of the report had been completed, Mr. Marine, of Maryland, moved that it be adopted by a rising vote. He said this is the greatest utterance that this great party has ever made and should be adopted unanimously.

Mr. Hoar, of Michigan, seconded the motion and demanded the previous question which was ordered and the report was adopted unanimously by a standing vote amid great enthusiasm.

MAKING NOMINATIONS.

The calling of the states for nominees was then began. When California was called Haymond said that the California delegation, whose position was well known here, asked the convention to pass California for the present.

HAWLEY NAMED.

Warner, of Connecticut, when that state was called, presented, without further remarks, the name of Hon. Joseph R. Hawley.

GRESHAM'S NAME.

When Illinois was called Leonard Swett presented the name of Walter Q. Gresham.

SWETT NOMINATES GRESHAM.

Mr. Leonard Swett, in nominating Gresham, recalled the scenes of twenty-eight years ago, when Lincoln was nominated, and spoke of the four years of war and the twenty years of peace of republican rule since then, of which we may well say with Webster: "The past, at least, is secure." Turning then to the question: "Who is now the fittest man to represent the sixty millions of our people as president," he offered Walter Q. Gresham. He then briefly sketched his life. "Born fifty-seven years ago, in Indiana, he spent one-third of his life on a farm, organized the party of Fremont in his county, when it contained but four persons. In 1860 he was elected to the legislature, where in 1861 he did valuable service, aiding Gov. Morton to meet the call for troops. Organizing a regiment he marched to Kentucky under Sherman, was with Grant at Shiloh and Vicksburg, served in the Atlanta campaign, where he was severely wounded near the place where his leader, McPherson, fell." The speaker spoke in warmest terms of his service as United States judge, declaring him to be the living ideal of the Grecian image of justice, unable to see the rank or standing of those seeking his judgment, but only weighing the merits of the case. He compared Gresham's candidacy to that of Lincoln's, showing close resemblance. Like Lincoln, Gresham has a heart in sympathy with the sons of toil, for he has labored with them in sunshine and cold. Concluding he said: "The people have a right to demand that there shall be a higher standard of integrity than that the president shall, in his letter of acceptance, pledge himself to one term and then by every official act afterwards work for a second nomination and appeal to them again for re-election. They have a right to demand that he shall not promise civil service reform with his lips and break every such promise in practice. The strength of Judge Gresham lies in the public belief that he will not do such things, but that he will, if elected, manage public affairs with the same common honesty he has heretofore managed every thing. Therefore, without disparaging in the slightest degree the merits of other candidates, I offer to this convention the rarest of opportunities, but nominate Gresham, and the people will bear him in triumph on their shoulders to the white house and to the official seat of Washington, Lincoln, Grant and Garfield. The ruins of government, under the inspiration of his leadership, will be taken from those who imperiled its existence and placed in the hands of those who saved it in its powerless weakness and danger. In behalf of the laboring men, of whose struggles he is the living embodiment, in behalf of the capital, whose rights he has guarded and adjusted, in behalf of the soldier, whose garb he has worn with honor in behalf of patriotism and loyalty, of which he is the shining representative and example, and for the state of Lincoln, Grant and Logan, I nominate as a candidate for the president of the United States the son of Illinois, by adoption Walter Q. Gresham."

Mr. Swett could be heard all over the hall and there was a wild demonstration of applause.

Mr. Davis, of Minnesota, seconded Gresham's nomination. He said he came from a state which had no favorite son, but which responded to the spontaneity of the choice of the nation. Mr. Davis' speech was full of well rounded periods, which were well delivered and provoked continuous applause. When he had concluded, the galleries cheered for nearly a full minute.

On behalf of Mississippi, John R. Lynch, seconded Gresham's nomination. Mr. Lynch alluded to the fact that Mr. Gresham was not a favorite son of Indiana and if the choice of the convention should fall upon that favorite son in the person of Benjamin Harrison—but Mr. Lynch was not permitted to finish his sentence as the mention of Mr. Harrison's name was the signal for an outburst of cheers. The Indiana delegates were on their feet in an instant brandishing canes, waving handkerchiefs and leading the ovation which the convention paid to Indiana's favorite son.

When order was restored, Mr. Lynch, continuing, said: "If Harrison was selected his friends would be more for the success of the ticket than would the friends of Walter Q. Gresham."

Mr. McCall, of Massachusetts, also seconded Judge Gresham's nomination.

The nomination was further seconded by Mr. Reeter, of Texas.

GENERAL HARRISON.

When Indiana was called and Governor Porter mounted the platform to place Mr. Harrison in nomination, a round of cheers were given, and one enthusiastic individual rose and waved a mammoth red flag on which was inscribed, in large gilt letters, the name of Harrison. Governor Porter was given a warm welcome.

Governor Porter began by calling attention to the fact that in 1880 Mr. Conkling, on being asked how New York would go in November, asked how Indiana would go in October. The party was well organized and the 7,000 republican majority in Indiana in October presaged the New York victory in November. Indiana was no longer an October state, but was never better organized than now for the republican party. Why not take advantage of the opportunity offered by the action of the democratic party toward Indiana and seize victory? He went on to speak of Harrison's career, making emphatic the fact that he was self reliant, having worked himself up by his own merits and not by any outside help. He went on to cite the immortal services of Harrison's ancestry, arguing that the son of such an ancestor could be relied on to do honor to their memory by his own achievements. Mr. Porter spoke with impressiveness and force and appealed more to the judgment of the convention than to its sentiments.

The Gresham men in the galleries cried out the name of their favorite when Governor Porter mentioned Harrison as Indiana's choice, to which he responded with emphasis that he voiced the unanimous and earnest sentiment of the Indiana delegation in presenting Senator Harrison's name.

ADJOURNED FOR DINNER.

At the conclusion of Governor Porter's speech, on motion of Mr. Brogan, of Tennessee, the convention took a recess until 3 o'clock.

IN SESSION AGAIN.

The convention was called to order for the afternoon session at 3:04 p. m.

No One Authorized to Speak for Mr. Blaine.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The Tribune of this morning has the following:

LONDON, June 20.—Mr. Blaine asks me to say that all rumors in the United States pretended to give letters or dispatches from him or any of his party touching political topics of any kind may be promptly discredited unless signed by Blaine himself.

He has sent nothing whatever on the presidential question except his Florence and Paris letters, and had no correspondence of any kind with any gentleman named in connection with the republican nomination. Blaine is now on the borders of Scotland pursuing his coaching tour.

Our Billy Wilson.

Chicago Special to Cincinnati Enquirer:

Billy Wilson, of Fort Wayne, is here, practically covered with Gresham badges. His friends are very sore against the Sherman element. There is an immense delegation here from Fort Wayne. Many more would have come, but claim that the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad officials would not give them the necessary cars. Senator Sherman is one of the directors of that road, and it is openly stated that the refusal of cars was due to the interference of Sherman himself. This is the story being told.

Not a Word to Say.

LONDON, June 21.—Hon. James G. Blaine, in an interview at Newcastle, declined to state whether he would accept the nomination for president.

TRAIN ROBBERS.

Three Wabash Passengers Touched for Gold and Jewels.

Three scoundrels, who are supposed to be following in the wake of Barnum's show, yesterday went through three or four passengers on the east-bound express on the Wabash road, due here at 8:30 o'clock, when near Peru. One traveling man lost a valuable gold watch and $50 in money. Seventy-five dollars in currency were stolen, and another lost some valuable papers and a considerable roll of bills. Conductor A. Baldwin and his brakeman endeavored to capture the crooks and struggled with them, but all jumped from the train, which was running thirty miles an hour at the time. The names of the victims could not be learned.

SAW THE SIGHTS.

A Hicksville Youth is Discovered in a Predicament.

Yesterday a party of five young men came to this city from Hicksville, Ohio, to see the circus.

They stopped at the Hedekin house and looked with amazement on the metropolitan wonders.

Four of the visitors went home, but Mr. Clark, the fifth, remained with us. He went out last night to look at social life under mellow lights and at an early hour this morning sought the hotel in a sad predicament.

He was coatless, hatless and shoeless. His watch, his ring, his collar and necktie and some other articles of use were missing. Mr. Clark is silent.

Changes on the Pennsylvania Lines.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 21.—Upon the resignation of Edmund Smith, first vice-president of the Pennsylvania, to take effect at the close of the month, it is said on high authority that John S. Wilson, at the head of the freight department, will be elected to one of the vice-presidencies. Frank Thomson, second vice-president, will succeed Mr. Smith, and Mr. Wilson steps into Mr. Thomson's present position.

The slate, as reported, is to make Wm. Stewart general freight agent of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg; F. H. Kingsbury, general freight agent of the Pennsylvania road proper, general through freight agent of the Pennsylvania lines, succeeding Mr. Stewart on the lines west of Pittsburg, and H. W. Hibbard, general freight agent of the Vandalia lines, is to succeed Mr. Kingsbury as general through freight agent, which is one of the most important positions in the system.

The Fort Wayne Road.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 21.—The special meeting of the stockholders of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad company, called to decide whether betterment bonds should be issued instead of stock to the Pennsylvania railroad company, has been postponed for three weeks, a full vote of the stock not being presented.

Foreign Notes.

DUBLIN, June 21.—John Dillon, M. P., went to Dunkirk jail yesterday and began serving his six months' sentence.

The report that Stanley is dead is not credited.

It was reported to-day that Balfour, chief secretary for Ireland, intends to resign, but he denies it.

Illness of Congressman Owen.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Congressman W. D. Owen, of the Tenth Indiana district, who has been here several days, is dangerously ill with stomach derangement and his condition is the cause of considerable apprehension on the part of his friends.

Sudden Death of a Physician.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., June 21.—Dr. G. D. Trembly, of Bippus, this county, died very suddenly Tuesday night. He was well known in this county and a prominent Mason and member of the County Medical society.

Vanderbilt Dividends.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The Vanderbilt directors met to-day and declared a dividend on Lake Shore of 2 per cent., Michigan Central 3 per cent. and Canada Southern 1½ per cent.

No Settlement.

PITTSBURG, June 21.—The joint wage committee of the iron manufacturers and amalgamated association are unable to reach a settlement.

A rare chance to hear the Haydn quartet to-morrow night at the Congregational church.

Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The Original LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

REWARD OF $1000 IN GOLD. $1000 FOR CATARRH, OR LITTLE SUGAR-COATED PILLS.

Being entirely vegetable, they operate without disturbance to the system, diet, or occupation. Put up in glass vials, hermetically sealed. Always fresh and reliable. As a laxative, alterative, or purgative, these little Pellets give the most perfect satisfaction.

SICK HEADACHE,

Bilious Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Indigestion, and all disorders of the stomach and bowels, are promptly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power over diseases it may reasonably be said that their action upon the system is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative influence. Sold by druggists, 25 cents a vial. Manufactured at the Chemical Laboratory of WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y.

$500 REWARD

is offered by the manufacturer of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hawking or noising to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous. It defies unskilled physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, however long standing, Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache.

Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 202 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and take pleasure in giving it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROMINE, Bunyan P. O., Columbia Co., Fla., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her: a third bottle effected a perfect and complete cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and healthy."

CHICAGO's cool weather reputation lives now in memory.

THE New York democratic press want the convention to nominate Blaine or Depew.

THE democratic prospects in Indiana are just as just as bright as they are painted.

GOSHEN has just voted upon itself a tax of $25,000 to secure the Danville and Sturgis railway.

HON. JOHN C. New telegraphed the Indianapolis Journal that Gresham was out of the race. We shall see.

THE republicans returning from Chicago are not as enthusiastic as the rockribbed element of that party would like to see.

THE young German emperor will grow wiser with age, and lay aside his war spirit for peaceful and profitable pursuits. Bismarck still lives.

THE primary election for delegates to the democratic county convention occurs to-morrow afternoon and evening. The county convention meets Saturday next.

LAFAYETTE furnished free transportation and paid the expenses of the 350 employes of the car works who went to Chicago to boom Gresham. It was not a popular uprising.

THE SENTINEL gives the news of the republican convention and gives it all twelve hours in advance of any other newspaper. This is no small task, but it is characteristic of THE SENTINEL.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND will receive the committee appointed to notify him of his renomination on the 26th inst., and the same committee will afterwards visit Columbus for the purpose of notifying Mr. THURMAN of his nomination. This is a time honored formality.

MR. JOHN M. THURSTON, the temporary chairman of the national republican convention, is the general solicitor of the Union Pacific railroad, and a lobbyist and a monopolist. There are entirely too many of his kind high in the councils of the republican party to suit the people.

THE republican enthusiasm at Chicago is accounted for. Some one figures Mr. Blaine's bar'l at five millions, Depew's, two millions; Morton's, seven millions; Aiger's, four millions; Sherman's, two millions; Phelps', five millions; Stanford's, ten millions; Rusk's, one million.

THE ship building program in the naval bill, as reported, provides for four vessels as against six last year, but the amount of displacement tonnage in the four ships of this bill is 19,000 as against 23,000 tons in the six ships of 1887. The estimated cost of the four is to be $7,700,000, as against $8,768,000 for the six ships. It will be noticed that the average cost of last year's ships was about $370 per ton of displacement, while in this year's vessels an average of $400 par ton is allowed. The proposed war vessels are to be as speedy as possible and as good as any that plough the seas.

ONE of the beauties of a high protective war tariff is that of Carnegie and Blaine in Scotland. Blaine is Carnegie's guest on a pleasure trip. The latter is worth $20,000,000 made in this country by the beauties of a high protective tariff, while sitting in the coach with him is James G. Blaine, whose advocacy of a high tariff made such a robbery possible, while Carnegie's great iron and steel works in Pennsylvania are closed and guarded by Pinkerton's men, simply because the working men employed by Carnegie will not submit to a further reduction of ten per cent. from the pittance which they have been receiving. There is a whole campaign speech in this condition of things.

Four Hundred Fishermen Drowned.

LONDON, June 21.—Detailed accounts of the gales which occurred on the coast of Iceland last month show that 400 French fishermen were drowned. Thirty vessels were wrecked.

ELECTION INSPECTORS.

The County Commissioners Make Appointments.

The county commissioners have appointed the following gentlemen to act as election inspectors for the ensuing year:

First ward—First precinct, Henry Mooning; Second precinct, Christian Kramer.

Second ward—First precinct, Maurice Cody; Second precinct, Dennis Monahan.

Third ward—First precinct, Gottlieb Nieman; Second precinct, A. Oppenheimer.

Fourth ward—First precinct, William P. Breen; Second precinct, C. Fred Meyers.

Fifth ward—First precinct, M. F. Schmutzer; Second precinct, Peter Hohnhouse.

Sixth ward—First precinct, Michael Wolf; Second precinct, Thomas Hayes.

Seventh ward—First precinct, W. J. Kerr; Second precinct, John Forbing.

Eighth ward—First precinct, Frank Gouke; Second precinct, Henry Vordermark.

Ninth ward—First precinct, David Hill; Second precinct, C. H. Linker.

Wayne township—First precinct, William Smith; Second precinct, J. Henry Stellhorn.

Washington township—Second precinct, F. W. Geisecking.

Adams township—First precinct, Herman Schneider; Third precinct, Peter Perequay.

Pleasant township—Second precinct, Thomas Greer.

LOST $20.

A Bloomingdale Man is Touched For That Sum.

Yesterday a sneak thief got into the Strodel boarding house, on the north side, and took a suit of clothes and $20 belonging to one of the lodgers.

The rascal placed the clothes so they were found, but he is enjoying the money.

A Card from Mr. Gladio.

To the Editor of The Sentinel.

The Dispatch of the 14th inst. publishes an article under the caption of "Strollar," in which he attempts to write up my record and states that I "served twelve years as county commissioner," a misrepresentation of three years. "The big county debt of $300,000 was made during his term as commissioner," is another wild statement. The county debt when I went out of office was $111,846.23. In this case he only strolled $88,469 from the truth. When I was elected commissioner but one iron bridge had been built in Allen county. During the nine years I was in office all bridges that had to be rebuilt were made of iron. Though iron bridges cost more than wooden ones they are good substantial structures and do not have to be rebuilt again in a few years. The old Rudisill, Riedmiller and paper mill bridges were examples of such structures that lasts twelve or fifteen years when made of wood. During this same nine years there were extensive additions made to the county asylum.

The little stumpy farm referred to contains 280 acres, which, no doubt, seems small to the owner of the Dispatch. No attention would have been paid to anything in the trash column of the Dispatch, but it was mentioned in another paper as a statement not denied.

A surprise party was given in honor of Miss Mollo Snider, last Saturday evening. All the guests enjoyed themselves and at 12 o'clock partook of a sumptuous repast, after which the participants went home.

Some of the young folks who attend the Methodist church will find themselves arraigned before a justice's court some Monday morning, for getting too gay during services.

Messrs. S. Smith, S. Kime and G. W. Kime are organizing a band with five pieces. The expect to take part in the coming campaign.

Quite an accident occurred last Sunday. While J. Akins had the belle of the town out riding, his horse, which he calls "Slow Go," got frightened, upsetting the buggy, kicking the dash board off, and demoralising the rig so that they had to go afoot for three or four miles, and when he got through kicking his name was "Go Slow." Luckily no one was hurt. Don't feed too heavy, J.

Happiness and Health

Are important problems, the former depending greatly on the latter. Everyone is familiar with the healthy properties of fruit, and no one can afford to be sick and miserable while the pleasant California concentrated liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, may be had of our enterprising druggists, Theisen & Gross.

Rev. H. H. Fairall, D. D., editor of the Iowa Methodist, says editorially, in the November (1886) number of his paper: "We have tested the merits of Ely's Cream Balm, and believe that, by a thorough course of treatment, it will cure almost every case of catarrh. Many others, as a class, are afflicted with head and throat troubles, and catarrh seems more prevalent than ever. We cannot recommend Ely's Cream Balm too highly."

a man for groaning when he has Rheumatism or Neuralgia. The pain is simply awful. No torture in the ancient times was more painful than these twin diseases. But—couldn't a man be blamed if, having Rheumatism or Neuralgia, he went on All-to-pieces, when it has cured thousands who have suffered as he does? It has cared hundreds after physicians have pronounced them incurable.

"The skill of five physicians could not relieve me of Rheumatism which had settled in the hips, neck and shoulders. So intense was the pain that sleep was almost impossible. The first dose of Athlophoros gave me relief, and the third enabled me to sleep for four hours at a time, and now I sleep continued in one night on my back."—MRS. E. HUNTER, Rose Abbey, Ind.

Via the Wabash Railway.

The National Educational Association will hold its annual meeting in San Francisco, Cal., July 12th to 20th, 1888. From the program already announced it is evident that this meeting will be of more than ordinary interest. Many of the prominent educators of the country will be present and participate in the proceedings.

Expecting that very many professional teachers, and others feeling an interest in educational work, will embrace this occasion to visit the Pacific Slope and to see the wonders of that "Western Italy" and of the vast intermediate mountain region, the Wabash railway has arranged to sell, at cheap rate, Excursion Tickets to San Francisco, with a liberal limit of time and a wide choice of routes both going and returning.

Tickets will be on sale from June 28 to July 12, inclusive, and will be good going, for thirty days from date of sale, but in no case later than July 18. The returning limit is ninety days from date of sale; giving ample time for extended travel or sojourn; even during the whole summer, upon the Pacific coast. Moreover, shop over privileges will be freely granted anywhere west of the Missouri river or of St. Louis, within the going or returning limits of the time.

A choice is given of seventeen different routes going, and twenty-one returning.

The car service over the Wabash line to St. Louis or Kansas City will include the familiar Wabash railway features of free Reclining Chair Cars, Wagner Sleepers, Wabash Dining Cars, etc., and beyond these points it will be the comfortable and elegant service which prevails upon the several transcontinental lines.

Why You Feel

So weak and exhausted is because your blood is impure. As well expect the sanitary condition of a city to be perfect with defiled water and defective sewerage, as to expect such a complicated piece of mechanism as the human frame to be in good order with impure blood circulating even to its minutest veins. Do you know that every drop of your two or three gallons of blood passes through the heart and lungs in about two and a half minutes, and that, on its way, it makes bone and muscle, brain and nerve, and all other solids and fluids of the body? The blood is the great nourisher, or, as the Bible terms it,

"The Life of the Body."

Is it any wonder, then, that if the blood be not pure and perfect in its constituents, you suffer so many indescribable symptoms?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla stands "head and shoulders" above every other Alterative and Blood Medicine. As proof, read these reliable testimonies:

G. C. Brock, of Lowell, Mass., says: "For the past 25 years I have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In my opinion, it is the best remedial agencies for the cure of all the diseases arising from impurities of the blood are contained in this medicine."

Eugene L. Hill, M. D., 391 Sixth Ave., New York, says: "As a blood-purifier and general builder-up of the system, I have never found anything to equal Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It gives perfect satisfaction."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla proves equally efficacious in all forms of Scrofula, Boils, Carbuncles, Eczema, Humors, Lumbago, Catarrh, &c.; and is, therefore, the very best

Spring and Family Medicine

in use. "It beats all," says Mr. Cutler, of Cutler Brothers & Co., Boston, "how

DECOLLETE STYLES.

Views on the Subject Not Exactly in Accord with Those of "Sensi."

[Chicago News.]

The decollete styles of dress in vogue among American women who possess evening toilettes and opportunity to display them, has been repeatedly censured as immodest. There's not the slightest question to be raised upon this point. No one gainsays the fact that the low-necked and no-sleeved bodice, as known to denizens of the United States, more frequently traverses the line of modesty than otherwise.

But beyond this justifiable charge, there's another that cannot but be apparent to any woman of good taste, who puts her faculties of observation and reflection to work. The evening dress that consists mostly of an extended skirt and a broad expanse of uncovered neck and arms is not a pleasing spectacle. It is a deliberate manifestation of crude ideas. It tells conclusively the story that the woman who wears it comes of a race new to full-dress regime. It lets out to all the world that the wearer's mother didn't go to parties in low-necked gowns. The woman who remembers how mamma came to the nursery to kiss the children good-night in a pretty toilet that half disclosed her neck and the glitter of the necklace upon her white throat, doesn't make the mistake of a too expansive uncovering of her bust. To do so unmistakably bespeaks the parvenu.

No matter how beautiful the woman nor how lovely her neck and arms, their complete revelation is not effective. A lavish display of charms is more apt to be too fulsome for attraction.

A glimpse of a snowy neck through a V front, round arms, with a fall of lace or long gloves stretching far beyond the elbows to cover their nakedness, leaves a haunting suggestion of beauty in the mind of the beholder quite untinged by any notion of immodest exhibition.

A sweet young creature with dimpled shoulders and wrists never looks more infantile or lovable than in some filmy creation with some round baby waist, cut just as low as it ought to be and not a hair's breadth lower.

A pompadour bodice for a mature woman of fine proportions may give her an air of having been used to purple and fine linen habiliments all her days. But in a gown, the bodice of which slips from narrow shoulder-straps deep down in front and behind, she becomes gross and takes on a look significant of a too-sudden release from the washtub.

The perfect evening toilet could not be one with high, stuffy neck and close sleeves. But the most imperfect evening gown is the one with the faint apology for sleeves in the shape of narrow strapsand where the bodice stops in the middle of the bust line.

The decollete waist, where even shoulder-straps are ignored, is unworthy of consideration as attire. It is not attire and it is absolutely inexcusable for any woman to assume that it is.

Medicinal Value of Water.

Dr. Titus Munson Coan makes the following remarks on the use of water:

Ordinary drinking water, if taken in large quantities, acts as a solvent and a diuretic, and also increases the perspiration if the temperature of the air be high. Taken in the quantity of one or two quarts at a time, the diluent effect of water is often sufficient to eliminate an excess of alcohol from the blood, as after taking too much wine. Another effect of large draughts of water is to make the pulse slower, and to diminish slightly the normal temperature of the body.

Increase of weight has been claimed as a result of systematic water-drinking on retiring for the night. The latest researches do not bear out this conclusion. Water thustaken will prevent any actual loss of weight, but it is not shown that it will do anything more. With the addition of a moderate stimulant, however, it has often a decidedly fattening effect.

Swallowed as hot as it can be borne, pure water has lately come into vogue as an efficient remedy for dyspeptic and rheumatic ailments, and for reducing the obesity consequent upon idle habits and overeating. It is not yet shown that these facts are caused by the hot water. I have seen cases in which this treatment, conjoined with a diet almost exclusively composed of lean meat and stale bread, has been followed by a great reduction of the invalid's weight, but the result seemed to me due to the withholding of superabundant food from the patient and not to any positive virtue in the hot water itself. In dyspepsia the hot water treatment sometimes succeeds for the same reason. Nature, if given a chance, has a good deal to say in the cure of the ailments that result from misuse of the digestive organs. But this treatment has the double advantage of giving the disturbed stomach comparative rest and of gently stimulating it to the digestive duties that it cannot wholly forego, unless the patient is to be sustained by faith alone. Of the internal use of mineral waters this is not the occasion to speak.

The Laundry.

Wash pillow-slips and stockings wrong side out. Javelle water will often take out obstinate mildew. Table linen does not need to be boiled every time it is washed, but it should be scalded. Ruffles and tucks require only half as much time to iron as puffings and delicate laces. Flannels should be washed first in warm suds, and rinsed in water of the same temperature. Articles of a delicate blue should be washed in water to which an ounce of sugar of lead has been added. Ginghams and calicoes should be ironed on the wrong side to produce the luster effect seen in new material. Table linen should be ironed single until quite dry, then folded by the thread or rolled upon a round stick as long as the cloth is wide. Recent fruit stains are easily removed from linen. The Journal of Commerce says: "It is seldom necessary to do more than to hold the linen tightly stretched over the tub and pour boiling water through it. No soap should be used until the stain disappears. When linen is thus stained a very wise plan is to rub the stained spot as full as possible with common table salt. This will prevent its drying until it is washed. When hot water is poured through it will easily remove all vestige of the stains. If the linen has been long stained, and washing has not removed it, sprinkle it with water just to dampen it, and rub into the stain on both sides, common yellow soap until it is thoroughly saturated, then lay on mixture of cold starch, very thick, and rub that well in, and expose to the sun and air. If a day or two of this exposure does not wholly remove the stain, repeat the process. We have never known it to fail."—Baltimore American.

LOCAL NEWS.

Rev. D. C. Woolpert was at Wolcottville yesterday.

An eclipse of the moon is predicted tomorrow night.

Ice cream and strawberry festivals are now all the rage.

There were lots of watermelons in the market yesterday.

Miss Lily Searles is visiting her parents at Huntington.

Many of the merchants did a good business yesterday.

Miss Della Fleming is visiting friends at Van Wert.

Mrs. S. B. Bond has returned from St. Louis Springs, Mich.

The Patriarchal Circle will have a dress parade this evening.

The Street Car company did a land office business yesterday.

Mrs. C. E. Brush, of Kansas City, is visiting friends in the city.

The Fort Wayne club played an exhibition game of ball at South Bend today.

Two hundred people came from Huntington yesterday to the Barnum-Bailey show.

John Enefle, a patient at the state insane hospital, has been discharged as cured.

Mr. C. M. Crawford, the postmaster of Pierceton, Ind., was in the city last evening.

Mr. Wm. Dougall, of Joliet, Ill., is in the city, the guest of his brother, Capt. Allen Dougall.

Hon. Robert Lowry is presiding as judge over the Noble county Circuit court at Albion this week.

Frank Pyke, formerly night bill clerk at the Nickel Plate freight office, has been promoted to day duty.

The art exhibition of St. Augustine's academy, at Library Hall, will continue till 10 o'clock Friday morning.

After completing its tour of Indiana, Ohio and Michigan the Barnum-Bailey circus will go west as far as Omaha.

The colored masons of Fort Wayne organized a chapter and commandery on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

Mr. D. C. Fisher has returned from Chicago, where he engaged additional attractions for the Fair association's Fourth of July celebration.

The board of commissioners of Adams county paid out $728.98 as aid to the poor; and refused to allow additional bills to the amount of $600 at their June term.

The Columbia City Post says: "John Bresnahan, of Fort Wayne, visited in town over Sunday.—Mr. Dennis O'Hern, the gentlemanly operator of the Wabash depot, Fort Wayne, visited in this place Sunday."

Barnum's circus did a great business in this city. The cool wave last evening made it pleasant to sit through the performance, which was all that the most critical could expect. It is the greatest circus in the world.

The Ancient Order of United Workman meets to-night and will initiate new members into the order. The lodge is becoming popular and every meeting night new applications are sent in for admission into the order.

The Fort Wayne club was beaten at Elkhart yesterday by a score of 8 to 2. Captain McDarby telegraphs that he couldn't have beaten Elkhart yesterday with the Chicago team. The home nine play at Logansport to-morrow and the day after.

While at Indianapolis, Dr. George W. Long was questioned by a Sentinel reporter as to the democratic situation in this district. He aptly replied: "We're in a good fix, of course. We would not have it any other way. I have no doubt as to the democratic success in the fall."

At the Pennsylvania railroad locomotive shops, at Altoona, the other day, a locomotive weighing 110,000 pounds was built in sixteen hours and fifty-five minutes and turned out ready for use, thus lowering the record which has previously been twenty-four hours, the time taken by the Baldwin locomotive works to build an engine.

The Huntington Democrat produces a story about a mysterious ball of fire which is alleged to appear at each change of the moon. It rises up in the air and then settles back into the earth after a few moments. The light is very brilliant and is said to appear on the farm of James Marshall, near Pleasant Plain, Huntington county.

The remains of Samuel Jones, a prominent citizen of Warren, west of Montpelier, were disinterred at Good cemetery for burial at the Masonic cemetery. It required the combined strength of six men to raise the coffin out of the grave. The box was opened, when it was found that the body had petrified. The features were the same as at his death, fifteen years ago. It is one of the most remarkable cases of petrification on record.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Emma, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Stellhorn, to Mr. Louis Niemeyer, the popular Calhoun street better. The marriage ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents, No. 22 Madison street, by Rev. Sauer, of the St. Paul's Lutheran church. The young couple dispensed with a wedding trip and will go to housekeeping at 128 Harrison street.

The trip of the working men to Chicago, under the auspices of some of Gresham's friends, was not as pleasant as it might have been made. The ride was a hot and dirty one, the parade in Chicago fatiguing, and an all-night ride back. The crowd from Lafayette fared much better. The men were provided for and it is said received $3 each for making the trip besides their entertainment. This has caused some dissatisfaction among the boys who went from here.

Yesterday Mr. C. L. Olds entertained a party of Gallion, Ohio, officials in this city and in the evening gave them an opportunity to inspect the electric light plant with a view of adopting the Jenney spark for their city. The party consisted of Councilmen John Blyth, Jacob Petri, Thomas Mackey, Thomas O'Neil, S. Bookwalter, Albe Mode, H. H. Solliday, J. S. Zimmerman, City Clerk, Chris H. Eise and Treasurer H. C. Sponhauer. Mr. Eise is also city editor of the Gallion Inquirer. They were shown every courtesy here and express themselves as delighted with the city.

Mr. W. D. Schiefer went to Chicago to-day.

Mr. George Esmond, of Medicine Lodge, Kan., is in the city.

The work of laying cedar blocks on Columbia street will begin next week.

The county commissioners concluded their session yesterday and adjourned.

The police report that a five year old child was lost last night and is still at large.

Hon. B. S. Gray, of Portland, is in the city. He is a candidate for congress down there.

The insurance on Mr. Jacob Pierson's house was $3,000, not $300 as erroneously stated.

Enoch Joslin and Bert Robinson were fined for drunkenness this morning at the mayor's court.

Miss Annie Fitch, of Bluffton, is in the city, the guests of the Misses Gray, on East Wayne street.

The commencement exercises at the Academy of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart occurs next Tuesday.

The Pittsburg tariff club will return from Chicago to-morrow night and have telegraphed for supper at the McKinnie house.

A picture of Phil. Sheridan will be shown at the Congregational church to-morrow night and Sheridans ride will be recited.

Wm. Geistdorfer was arrested to-day for assaulting Ed. Cunningham. His trial will conclude before the mayor to-morrow.

Dr. A. J. Lesbesch sues Nicholas Blum for $100 and Washington Swineheart et al. for $100. W. G. Colerick is his counsel.

New sidewalks are being constructed on Berry, Main, DeWald and Montgomery streets and the Maumee road, so Inspector Michael says.

Two car loads of commissioners returned from Chicago this morning and proceeded on the Pittsburg east. They dined at the McKinnie house.

The average young American heaves a sigh now that the circus is over, but keeps his eye steadily on the Fourth of July, which is less than two weeks away.

Mr. Will McKinnie is at home from Pittsburg. The marriage of his sister, Miss Esther, to Dr. Bingham, was a very brilliant affair. The wedding gifts were elaborate.

Cottage meeting of the Railroad Y. M. C. A. to-morrow evening at the home of Mr. Wilson McQuiston, No. 49 Second street, at 7:30 standard time. Everybody invited.

Mrs. A. C. Trentman will attend the commencement exercises at the Convent of St. Mary's of the Woods, in southern Indiana, next Saturday. Her daughter is one of the brightest pupils of the school.

Clark Fairbanks has been given a permit to build a one-story frame house on lot 26, White's addition, to cost $450; and John Seiber to build a two-story brick store building on lot 119, old plat, to cost $2,000.

Messrs. John Humphrey, J. McCarty and Fred. Rossiow went to Rome City this morning on a fishing expedition. Two or three black bottles protruded from their pockets which the fisherman will use to coax up the timid finny tribe that inhabit the lakes.

The funeral of Mrs. William Gaffney occurred Monday and was very largely attended, showing that feeling and friendship for the family is widespread. Rev. Father O'Leary preached the funeral sermon at the Cathedral, and paid a very eloquent tribute to the deceased.

A reception will be tendered Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nefmeyer this evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stellhorn, 22 Madison street. Mr. Nefmeyer is a member of the Euphonia double quartet, and that musical organization will make the evening a pleasant one.

E. E. Dusenberry, secretary, treasurer and manager of Round Island summer resort at Rome City, was in durance vile last week. He was a star boarder of Richard Williams, sheriff of Noble county, under indictment for selling liquor on Sunday to two minors. Mr. Dusenberry swore that he was in no way connected with Round Island, that he had no interest there and that he did not sell the beer. He was let go, free.

A Rome City correspondent writes the Kendallville News: "The Caledonian society, of Fort Wayne, had an enjoyable time at their picnic last Friday. They carried out their program to the letter, which consisted of throwing sledges, leaping over a pole, foot racing, boat racing, sack racing, etc. Their Highland piper was one of the attractions. Nothing marred their pleasant time. They are certainly a very highly cultured people, and observed all the rights and privileges due a gentleman or lady. We always welcome the Caledonians. Come again, come often.

The remains of Mr. Thomas W. Leighton, who was killed on the railroad at Minneapolis, are expected to arrive here to-night. They will be taken to the home of his relatives at No. 56 North Cass street. The funeral will occur to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock from the Cathedral. Mr. Leighton was born and raised in this city and has a host of friends who speak of him as an excellent and most exemplary young man. He was twenty-six years of age and so full of promise that the announcement of his death comes with the deepest sorrow to all who knew him.

Card of Thanks.

I desire in a special manner to thank my friends and neighbors for the kind sympathy they manifested during the long sickness in my family, and to assure them that I appreciate very much all they have done, and that I shall always hold them in grateful remembrance.

WM. GAFFNEY.

The St. Paul's M. E. Church Fair a Grand Success.

A large crowd attended the fair last evening.

If you desire to spend an evening pleasantly, attend the church fair on Walton avenue.

There will be several attractions at the fair to-night.

The Gypcy tent was well patronized last night.

The public is most cordially invited to the fair this evening.

Come and have a good time at Simpson Fair to-night. We sell things very cheap.

ECHOES OF THE RAIL.

The News of the Day as It Comes From the Railroads and Manufactories Bunched Together.

The railroads are announcing reduced rates for the Fourth of July.

The Pennsylvania Company base ball club have handsome new uniforms.

The Nickel Plate and Pittsburg are having a big passenger excursion travel this week.

The collection of news items around the railroad shops is hard work these dull, hot mornings.

Messrs. Wade and Stevens, of the Wabash, were in the city yesterday inspecting the company's property.

A large force of men are engaged in laying new ties for the Pittsburg track between Hanna and Lafayette streets.

The Literary society of the Salem Reformed church left the south depot this morning with a pleasant excursion party for Rome City.

Three large excursion trains filled with people returning from Chicago, passed through the city this morning, at 7 o'clock, going east.

The two engines injured in the wreck at the Nickel Plate bridge yesterday are in the Pittsburg shops for repairs. They are pretty badly wrecked.

The office of the Pittsburg machine shops was pretty badly drenched last night by the water which in some manner escaped from one of the boilers.

The red bandana is used very extensively among the employes in the shops. It has always been popular with them, but has been used more than ever since the nomination of Thurman.

One of the smart drivers on the Hanna street car line is a man named Rooney. The company ought to give him a medal and a retired salary. Our reporter will pay his share of the latter.

The politicians are still working the boys in the shops, but have been unable to make but little progress this week on account of the interest that centers at Chicago during the convention.

A. J. Brillhart, truck riveter in the Pittsburg car shops, was injured yesterday by a piece of steel flying up and hitting him on the arm, while he was at work. The injury will lay him up for a week or two.

Frank Cherry and J. W. McGowan, of the Pittsburg boiler shops, went to Lima, Ohio, this morning. Barnum's circus shows at that place to-day, and this fact may have something to do with their presence in Lima.

The excursion of the Pennsylvania company's employes to Warsaw takes place Saturday. It will be the largest of the season, as the families of the employes accompany them, and are furnished transportation free.

The Grand Rapids railroad have a large number of new passenger cars in their yards that have a seating capacity for eighty-five persons, being twenty-five more than the regular cars. These new cars are strong and very handsome.

Charley Taylor, machinist in the Rees works, thinks it will be Greshaw; John T. Wichman says it will be Depew, and Henry Zanner is willing to bet on Blaine. All the boys are democrats and enthusiastic for Cleveland and Thurman.

A general order has been issued from the general headquarters of the Pennsylvania railroad company prohibiting the running of Sunday excursion trains on any of the lines which it owns or operates. The only exception to this order which will be allowed will be in the case of religious gatherings, and then only when the regular trains won't accomodate the crowds.

The Pittsburg works now have four badly wrecked locomotives in the round house for repairs. They represent the work of but a single day's wrecks. Two of them are from the wreck of yesterday morning at the Nickel Plate bridge and the other two are from the last night's wreck in the yards. The damage done to these four locomotives runs up to several thousand dollars.

Wm. Lerch is one of the machinists on the night force at the Rees works. He took a dandy 12 o'clock lunch with him last evening when he went to work and deposited it in its usual place. At the midnight hour he sought his basket, only to find it gone. Some tramp, who had been loitering around the shops, had stolen it, and William was compelled to accept the kindly hospitality of one of his fellow workmen.

Mr. C. R. Higgins, chief clerk in the Pennsylvania company's offices at this place, will issue the passes to the employes of the shops who go to Warsaw next Saturday on their annual excursion. The clerks of the various departments are now taking the names of those who intend to go and the number of tickets they desire. These lists will be reported to Mr. Higgins and he will issue the required number of passes.

The boys of the Pennsylvania base ball club have elected J. H. Sloan, the clerk of the machine department as their manager. It is a good selection. "Jim" can manage anything from a base ball club to a political caucus, and in the latter he is a decided success when he sees fit to boom a personal friend. Manager Sloan will bring the boys through all right Saturday, in their game with the Warsaw club, and will see to it that victory perches, with a big V, upon the banners of the Pittsburg.

After scanning the annual report of the Pennsylvania company, the Richmond Telegram says: "There are but few persons who stop to think how much money a railroad company pays out annually. On the Pittsburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis division there was disbursed, last year, to employes, conducting transporation, motive power, maintenance of way, maintenance of cars and general expenses $4,037,218.65. This division extends from Columbus to Pittsburg. On the same account there was paid out on the Chicago, St. Louis and Pittsburg, $4,811,164.91. This line is from Indianapolis to Columbus, and from Chicago to Bradford Junction. On the Little Miami $1,629,089.71 was disbursed. The total sum paid out on these three divisions reached $9,956,443.87.

Supt. John Wilkinson.

The county commissioners yesterday reappointed Mr. John Wilkinson superintendent of the county asylum farm for a period of two years. Mr. Wilkinson is a splendid officer, no man aims to do his whole duty better and this reappointment is a source of congratulation all around.

The hot wave continues.

REV. S. A. NORTHROP.

His Prayer Before the National Convention Cheered.

The telegram to THE SENTINEL yesterday briefly noted that Rev. S. A. Northrop opened the republican convention with prayer.

The Chicago Daily News says:

"When the Rev. Stephen A. Northrop, of Fort Wayne, Ind., began his prayer there was a hush in the convention hall and every word of it could be distinctly heard. It was considerably longer than that of the gentleman who petitioned the throne of grace yesterday, but it was an eloquent appeal withal and held the audience to very close attention for a prayer.

The prayer was that the Almighty might decree that the selection of the convention and its action in every respect might have the sympathy of the masses. He invoked God's special favor upon those who were the representatives of the various states. He asked the Divine blessing to rest upon the great party represented here to-day, and returned thanks for its glorious past and its many and great successes. It had come out of tribulation and at once risen to dignity and command, nourished by the blood of martyrs—our brave soldier boys. He prayed God's blessing to rest upon the soldier of the nation who is now languishing on the bed of sickness. He invoked the Divine presence in all that the convention did, through Jesus Christ.

There was loud applause when the prayer was ended."

The Chicago Mail adds:

"A pleasant looking lady in a brown dress was escorted to a seat on the platform, and there was a buzz of inquiry as to whom she might be, which was stilled instantly when it was learned that she was the wife of the Rev. S. A. Northrop, of the First Baptist church, of Fort Wayne, Ind., who was to offer the opening prayer."

REV. NORTHROP'S PRAYER IN FULL.

Let us unite in prayer. Almighty Father, Lord of hosts, before Thy gracious throne we would reverently bow ourselves, recognizing Thee in all the solemn and eventful affairs of life. Thou hast been our help in centuries past. Thou art our hope for ages. We thank Thee for Thy loving kindness and Thy tender mercies. We thank Thee for all of the memories that cluster around this sacred and impressive hour. We thank Thee that Thou hast inclined our hearts towards Thee, and we realize that without Thee we can do nothing. We invoke the divine blessing to rest upon this assembly in all of its present responsibilities; in all of its present necessities and demands. We thank Thee for divine and civil protection. We thank Thee for all the rich blessings that come to us to-day from a glorious past. We thank Thee that Thou dost lead us to depend upon Thee in every deliberation, and especially upon those things that pertain to our national and spiritual welfare. Thou hast strengthened the bars of our gates, Thou hast made peace within our borders, Thou hast filled our land with the finest wheat; Thou hast not dealt so with any other nation. We thank Thee, Father, that to-day we may feel in our hearts the inspiration of this hour, and we pray that Thy blessings may rest upon the assembled representative hosts that are gathered here to-day from all parts of our broad land. Help them to realize the grave responsibilities resting upon them in the choice of a standard-bearer who shall come from the people and be of the people, one who shall partake of the sympathies of the masses, for Thou didst say when Thou was on earth, Oh, blessed Christ, come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. We invoke Thy special favor to rest upon those who are leaders of this convention, and those who are the representatives of the people in the various states. We ask Thy blessings to rest upon the great party that is represented here to-day. We thank Thee for its glorious past and success, though indeed it has come out of tribulation and has washed its robes in the sacrificial blood of multitudes of brave soldier boys. We pray Thee, Father, that thy blessing may rest upon the soldier of a nation who is now languishing upon a bed of sickness. May the comforts of the Holy Spirit be with him, and we pray Thee, if consistent with thy will, that thou wouldst restore him to his family and to this nation. We ask Thee now that Thou wouldst favor this convention, representing the people and for the people, by Thy presence, and may its deliberations be in keeping with Thy will. We ask it in the name of the worthy Christ of Calvary. Amen.

AN INSANE MAN.

Leaves His Home and Can Not be Found

George Duplain, who is simple minded and can not make himself understood, left his home on Barthold street, last night, and has not been seen since.

His relatives are alarmed for his safety and the officers have searched in vain for him.

Two Casualties.

Adam Hite, a street car driver, was caught between passing cars yesterday and knocked senseless. His scalp was cut and for a time his injuries were regarded as dangerous. He rallied, however, and is about to-day as usual.

Al. Herald, a young man employed by Ryan Bros., was badly hurt by the breaking of a pulley at the Wabash freight yards yesterday. He was taken home in the "Lizzie" and is pretty sick. He will recover however.

FOR SALE.—One hundred sheep. Call on Wm. Fox, 535 West Main street. 21d6t.

ANOTHER WRECK.

Two Locomotives Embrace in the Pittsburg Yards and Cause a Pretty Bad Wreck.

About midnight last night a locomotive on the Grand Rapids road was returning to the city with a number of empty passenger cars, which had been used for hauling the excursion people who attended Barnum's circus yesterday. A Pittsburg freight train was standing on the side track in the company's yards. The switch was open, and the Grand Rapids train ran onto the side track and crashed into the Pittsburg locomotive with a fearful force.

The engineers and firemen jumped from their engines, but the locomotives were terribly wrecked, the front of both being crushed in a fearful manner. They were both taken to the Pittsburg shops for repairs. The loss caused by the wreck will probably amount to a few thousand dollars.

RECEIVER M'NULTA.

He Makes a Great Showing For the Wabash For May.

Receiver McNulta has issued his report of the receipts and disbursements of the Wabash railway for the month of May. The recapitulation shows that the amount of cash on hand at the close of April, as per report filed, was $150,223.98. The receipts during May, on accounts prior to April 1, 1887, were $157.37, while the receipts on current account—including returns from station agents on freight and ticket account, cash fares from conductors, sundry railroads on foreign ticket and joint freight accounts, the Pacific Express and Union News companies, the United States war department for freight and passenger transportation, and from miscellaneous sources—were $716,300.69, making a total of $866,682.04. The disbursements on accounts prior to April 1, 1887, were $306.96, and on current account $658,319.91, making the total disbursements $658,626.89. The current liabilities include balances due to other railroads or transportation companies on account of interchange of traffic, operating expenses, track, road, and bridge rentals, supplies and materials, etc. The balance on hand May 31, 1888, was $208,055.15.

Eulogy on the New Haven Base Ball Players.

The first New Haven nine having been cordially invited by the East Jefferson nine to play a game of ball on the latter's diamond on the 17th, came to the ground in due time, and as the East Jeffersons had never played many games of ball, they did not expect to win, accordingly both captains agreed that the East Jeffersons should buy the ball which the New Haven nine had brought with them, no matter who won the game. The game was played, which resulted as was expected, but while the crowd was listening to the reading of the score, the fellow who caught last, with the skill of an experienced pitcher sneaked the ball into his buggy and with two companions were soon driving away at full speed, waving their hands and thinking they had played a nice trick on the Jefferson fellows. But lo! when the ball was missed the East Jeffersons were after them in full chase and after a two mile chase they were captured. They sternly denied having it, but when they found that their captors were in earnest they meekly handed it over. Before the game began they boasted of having stolen a ball bat from the Fort Wayne printers who played there a week previous.

We wish them success in playing ball and cordially invite them back again. But we sincerely hope that in their pilfering they will be as easily caught as at Jefferson township.

Obeying the Letter.

In "a government of laws and not of men," as the constitution of Massachusetts puts it, the people strenuously insist that the forms of law shall always be observed. A long while ago, the burghers of Stralsund, a city of North Germany, were made indignant by seeing a notice, signed only by the Governor, posted on the Rathhaus, ordering every one passing through the streets at night to carry a lantern.

As the streets were not lighted, the object of the Governor was to secure public safety and convenience. But the burghers were angry that he should issue the order of his own motion, instead of transmitting it, according to custom, through the town council.

So on the first night after the publication of the mandate, the citizens who went out into the streets, and an unusual number went, provided themselves with lanterns, but put no lights in them.

The next morning another decree came from the angry Governor, ordering that each lantern should be furnished with a candle. When night came, the candles were in the lanterns, in strict compliance with the order, but not one of them was lighted, and again the Governor's purpose was defeated.

Another order was then issued, commanding that each lantern should contain a lighted candle. The citizens obeyed, but hid the lanterns under their cloaks. Upon, this, the Governor became furious, and ordered the citizens, under the penalty of punishment, to expose lighted lanterns to view. The burghers again did just as they were bidden, but provided wicks so tiny that the light thereby produced was no bigger than that of a glow-worm.

The Governor then yielded, and communicated his order through the town council. From that time the streets were properly lighted by numerous lanterns. Moreover the burghers had won the victory finally, and thereafter all orders went through the process of approval.—Youth's Companion.

Happiness and Health

Are important problems, the former depending greatly on the latter. Everyone is familiar with the healthy properties of fruit, and no one can afford to be sick and miserable while the pleasant California concentrated liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, may be had of our enterprising druggists, Theime & Meyer.

ELLA WHEELER WILCOX truly sings: "We build our own ladders to climb to the sky." Certainly we do. And we'd get there, too, if we only built enough ladders and made them long enough. The trouble with us is, that after splicing the ladders until we get somewhere about the fifth story, we decide to sit down and ge.nonize breath by waiting for the elevator. And then, half the time a fellow steps into the elevator when it is on the down trip.—Robert J. Burdette.

A YOUTHFUL Roman soldier, being captured by the enemy, was threatened with torture if he refused to betray the Roman army; and, to show that he did not fear any torture that could be inflicted upon him, he held his right arm over the flames until it was burned off—never flinching, never faltering, and showing no indications of the more than mortal agony he endured. It is extremely doubtful, however, if he had the courage and fortitude of an Ohio young man, who had the nerve recently to elope with his mother-in-law!—Arcola Record.
